ÖNSÖZ

Dil öğreniminde okuma becerisini ve kelime dağarcığını geliştirmek son derece önemlidir. Hem okuma alanında hem de kelime alanında çok fazla kaynak olması kaynak seçimini güçleştirmektedir. Kişinin önce kendi seviyesini ve dil öğrenme amacını belirleyip ona göre kitap seçimi yapması ve ihtiyacı olan düzeyde kelimeleri ezberlemesi gerekmektedir.

Bu kitap level1 kitabının devamı olup Level1 sisteminde gramer, okuma ve genel kelime dağarcığını (1650 kelime) oturtmuş bireyler için uygundur. Level1 sisteminde öğrettiğimiz kelimeleri tekrar ederken yeni kelimeler öğreterek dil becerinizi ilerletecektir. Yine level1 sisteminde öğrendiğiniz temel cümle yapılarının bir nebze daha üstü olan cümlelerle akademik İngilizceye hazırlığınızı bu kitapta tamamlayacaksınız. Çalışmanıza okuyacağınız metnin kelimelerini ezberleyerek başlamanızı daha sonra metni okuyup Level1 sisteminde öğrendiğiniz gramer çizimlerini yapıp sonra da www.phdakademi.com sitesindeki çeviri ve konu anlatımı videolarını izlemenizi tavsiye ediyoruz. Her bir parçayı okuduktan sonra hemen kontrol videolarını izlemeniz çok daha verimli olacaktır. Her beş parçada bir o parçalardaki bağlam baz alınarak oluşturulan testler ile hem gramere odaklanıp test çözme becerinizi geliştirmeyi hedefliyoruz hem de bu gramer konularına maruz bırakmak istiyoruz. Zaten bağlamını ve kelimelerini bildiğiniz sorular ile karşı karşıya geldiğinizden dolayı direk gramere odaklanmanız mümkün olacak. Unutmayın lütfen, hiçbir soru sizi test etmek için hazırlanmadı. Testlerin tek amacı daha iyi bir öğretim süreci sunmak ve konuları pekiştirmek. Daha sonra da metinlerin dinlemelerini yaparak dinleme becerinizi ve telaffuzunuzu geliştirebilirsiniz. Kelimelerin mekanik öğretimi için bölümlere ayrılmış Level2 Kelime Ek kitabının çıktısını da almanız mümkün. Bazı öğrencilerimiz bu kitaptaki alıştırmalardan çok hoşlandıklarını ve onları yapmadan ezberleyemediklerini söylüyorlar. Bazıları ise tam tersi sıkıldıklarını söylüyorlar. Böyle olunca bu kısmı isteğe bağlı yapmayı tercih ettik.

Eğer Level1 sistemini tamamlamamış ve oradaki öğretimimizi geçmedi iseniz öncelikle o aşamanın bitmesi çok daha iyi olacaktır. Bu kitapta cümle kalıpları ve yapıları akademik düzeyde olmakla beraber seçilen kelimeler ve konular akademik konulara göre daha kolaydır. Bundan dolayı, akademik kelime ve konuların oturması için Level3 kitabına geçilmesi önemlidir.

1. I Want to Dye my Hair Green

Many of my friends have dyed their hair different colors.

I don't mean normal hair colors like brown or black.

My friends have dyed their hair orange, purple and blue.

I told my mother that I would like to dye my hair green.

I explained to my mother that I would only use food coloring.

The green would not last forever.

My mother said that dyeing your hair was a silly fad.

She said that I would not look good with green hair.

I said that if I couldn't dye my hair green, maybe I could get a nose ring.

My mother said "no." I said that maybe a tattoo on my arm would be nice.

My mother said "no way." My mother said that she did some crazy things when she was a young girl.

She said that she used to iron her hair to make it straight.

That sounds quite boring to me. My friend Joan came over.

Her hair is dyed bright pink. My father said "nice hair, Joan." I don't think that he really meant it.

My mother says that when I am an adult I can dye my hair whatever crazy color I like, but for now she would like me to leave my hair its natural color.

I tried to tell her that all my friends were doing it.

My mother asked, "if all your friends were jumping off a cliff, would you do it too?

" I said "no." I think I'll have to wait to have green hair, but maybe by the time I'm old enough to dye my hair green, I won't want it that color.

My mother says that fads change all the time.

One day something might be popular, and the next day it's not in style at all.

I'll just have to live without green hair for now. I wonder what the fad will be next month.

2. Why Do People Dislike Other People?

Some people don't like other people just because they look different.

I think that is silly.

I don't think that it is fair to judge someone by the way that they look.

Some people look very nice, but they are mean or cruel.

Some people look very ordinary, but they are incredibly nice.

I remember when I was in grade one; I saw a girl across the room.

She had a mean look on her face. I thought to myself that she was probably not a very nice person.

I stayed away from her, and played with the other children.

Then, we had to play a game, and the teacher said that she would pick partners for us.

The teacher picked the girl with the mean face as my partner.

I didn't think that the game would be much fun at all with a partner who seemed as mean as that girl.

I walked up to her and said hello. The girl's face changed.

She smiled at me, and she began to talk to me.

Her mean face disappeared. We had lots of fun playing the game.

We laughed a lot and enjoyed each other's company.

That girl became my best friend.

Now when I look at her I see what is inside her.

Sometimes she doesn't smile, but I know what she is like.

She is a kind and funny person.

I have learned that you can't "judge a book by its cover." It is not fair to dislike someone just because they don't look like you want them to look.

You have to get to know a person. It doesn't matter to me what color a person's skin is.

It doesn't matter to me if they are short or tall, skinny or fat or happy or sad looking.

I judge people by how they treat me, and I try to treat people like I would want to be treated.

3. The Birthday Gift

It is going to be my father's birthday.

What can I give him? I don't have much money.

I have looked all through the stores, and I have not found anything that I think he would like, or that I can afford.

I have thought very hard about what to buy for him.

I thought that he might like some candy, but my father really doesn't eat many sweets.

I thought that he might like a new shirt, but he has lots of clothes.

I can't afford a new car or computer for him. I was watching him on the weekend.

He cut the grass, washed the car, took out the garbage, weeded the garden and watered the plants.

I got an idea. I went to my room and took out some paper.

I cut out pieces of paper, and I wrote on them.

I wrote on one piece of paper that I would wash the car every weekend for the summer.

I wrote on another piece that I would take out the garbage every week for the summer.

I also wrote that I would cut the grass, weed the garden and water the plants every week for the summer.

I made a birthday card for my dad, and I put the pieces of paper inside it.

I went downstairs and gave my gift to my dad. My dad thought that the gift was very thoughtful.

He said that it was a gift from the heart. I did all those things for my dad all summer.

He said that he had a lot of free time because I helped him so much.

My dad and I are good friends.

I don't mind doing things for him because I know that he is always there to help me out.

A good gift doesn't have to be something that costs a lot.

My dad says that the best gifts are the ones that show how much you care for the other person.

I'm glad my dad liked his gift.

4. New Year's Day

On New Year's Day people start a new year.

Many people make resolutions. They resolve to be better people.

Some people decide that they will lose weight so that they can be healthier.

Some people decide to give up smoking. They also want to be healthier.

There are all kinds of resolutions that people make.

Some people try not to lose their tempers.

Some people say that they will work harder.

There are people who try to give up bad habits.

Every year, my brother says that he will stop biting his nails.

He stops biting his nails in January, but by February he always starts again.

That is the thing about New Year's resolutions. People seldom keep them.

Everybody starts out with good intentions, but it is very hard to stick with them.

I don't make New Year's resolutions. I find that I just break them.

I just work day by day to break my bad habits.

I know that I eat too many sweets. Every day, I just try to resist them.

I think that every day is a new day regardless of whether it is New Year's Day or not.

Bad habits are hard to break. The best thing is never to start any bad habits.

I don't know if my brother will ever stop biting his nails, but I know that each January he intends to stop.

5. If I Could Fly

I sometimes imagine what it would be like if I could fly like a bird.

Just imagine what it would be like to soar into the sky, flying high above the trees.

You could stand on high rooftops and never be afraid of falling.

You would see so many things as you flew over rooftops and forests.

You would feel incredibly free as you traveled from place to place, not bothered by road signs or traffic jams.

If I could fly like a bird, I would start from my back yard and travel through town.

I would look down on the houses and factories.

When I got tired, I would land in a field and take a nap.

I would travel above rivers, and follow them as they wound along and emptied into lakes and oceans.

I would fly above parks, and I would call out to the children as I flew high above them.

I would dip and dive as I flew. I would soar up high and dive down low so that I could almost touch the treetops.

Have you ever flown? I know that you can't fly like a bird, but you might have taken an airplane ride.

When you're in an airplane, you pass through clouds.

It is exciting to take an airplane ride.

I love taking airplane flights. I like to look down at the Earth.

When you are up that high, everything below you looks tiny.

That's the closest I'll get to flying like a bird.

But I can still use my imagination and spread my wings and soar high above the world just like a bird.

AMAÇ BAĞLAÇLARI
She went to Elazığ so that she could see Harput.
She went to Elazığ in order that she could see Harput.

2g Bağlaçlar:

Bu bağlaçlar da 1g bağlaçlar gibi iki TAM CÜMLEyi bağlar fakat bunlar iki cümlenin ortasında kullanılmak zorundadır. Yani bu bağlaçlardan önce mutlaka başka bir öncül gerekir. Genelde ilk cümleden sonra nokta ya da noktalı virgül olur. Sonra bu bağlaçlar ve bunlardan sonra da virgül olur. Bazı istisnai durumlarda 2g bağlaç ikinci cümlenin ortasında ya da sonunda olur. Çevirirken önce birinci cümleyi sonra ikinci cümleyi çevirirz.

She didn't study hard. However, she passed the exam. ("However" burada en başa gelemez. Mutlaka öncesinde bir yargı olmalı)

She studied hard, so she passed the exam. ("So" burada en başa gelemez. Mutlaka öncesinde bir yargı olmalı)

Sebep-Sonuç	Zıtlık
She didn't study. Therefore, she didn't pass the exam.	She didn't study. Though, she passed the exam.
She didn't study. Thus, she didn't pass the exam.	She didn't study. However, she passed the exam.
She didn't study. Hence, she didn't pass the exam.	She didn't study. Nevertheless, she passed the exam.
She didn't study. Consequently, she didn't pass the exam.	She didn't study. Nonetheless, she passed the exam.
She didn't study, so she didn't pass the exam.	She didn't study. Yet, she passed the exam.
She didn't study. As a result, she didn't pass the exam.	She didn't study. But, she passed the exam.
She didn't study. As a consequence, she didn't pass the exam.	She didn't study. Notwithstanding, she passed the exam.
	She didn't study. Still, she passed the exam.
	Ali is hardworking. On the other hand, Ayşe is lazy

He is very hardwoking. In addition, he is very clever.
He is very hardwoking. What is more, he is very clever.
He is very hardwoking. Besides, he is very clever.

DİKKAT: besides hem birinci grup hem de ikinci grup bağlaç olarak kullanılabilir.

Besides'ı Beside ile karıştırmamak gerekir.

3g Bağlaçlar:

Bu bağlaçlar bir isim/isim grubu (tam cümle değil) ile bir cümleyi bir birine bağlar. 1g ve 2g'den farkı iki tam cümleyi birbirine bağlamamalarıdır. Kendilerinden sonra isim, gerund, NC alabilirler.

Because of her illness, she didn't go to school. (Because of 3g bağlaçtır. Bağlı olduğu yer tam bir cümle değil.)

Despite her illness, she went to school. (Despite 3g bağlaç. Dolayısıyla devamında tam bir cümle yok.)

Neden Sonuç	Zıtlık
Because of her illness, she didn't go to school	Despite her illness, she went to school.
Due to her illness, she didn't go to school	In spite of her illness, she went to school.
Owing to her illness, she didn't go to school
On account of her illness, she didn't go to school	Contrary to popular belief, some fruits are useless
Thanks to her teacher, she passed the exam easly	Unlike Ayşe, Ali is hardworking

Kosul (3. Grup) (implied conditional)
If it weren't for his teacher, he wouldn't be at university now.
If it hadn't been for his teacher, he wouldn't have passed the exam.
But for his teacher, he wouldn't be at university now.
But for his teacher, he wouldn't have passed the exam.
AYRICA
Without his teacher, he wouldn't be at university now.
Without his teacher, he wouldn't have passed the exam.
2. grup (implied conditional bu kullanım)
He had a good teacher. Otherwise, he wouldn't be at university now.
He had a good teacher. Or (else), he wouldn't be at university now.

In addition to English, she can speak German.
Besides English, she can speak German.
As well as English, she can speak German.

Paralellik Gerektiren Bağlaçlar:

Aşağıdaki bağlaçların bir tarafında ne kullanılıyorsa öteki tarafında da aynısını kullanmak gerekir. Yani isimse isim, sıfatsa sıfat, fiilse fiil, zarfsa zarf… olması gerekir. Bu yüzden çift boşluk olan sorularda boşluklardan sonraki kısımların paralel olup olmadığına bakılır. Paralel ise bu bağlaçlar düşünülür.

Both …. and….
Not only …. But also….
Either … or….
Neither … nor

Bu bağlaçlar eğer özne konumunda ise bu bağlaçlardan sonra gelen fiile dikkat etmek gerek. Both … and …'den sonra gelen fiil kesinlikle çoğul olur. Diğerlerinde ise fiile yakın olan isim önemlidir. O çoğul ise çoğul fiil, tekil ise tekil fiil gerekir.

Both Ali and Ayşe ARE Not only Ali but also Ayşe IS Not only Ali but also his parents ARE Not only his parents but also Ali IS (Either… or ve neither… nor da not only … but also… gibidir.

Not: Not only … but also … eğer iki TAM CÜMLEyi bağlıyorsa DEVRİK yapı gerektir. İki cümleyi bağlamıyorsa gerektirmez.

Not only do they have a dog but they also have a cat (İki cümleyi bir birine bağladığından Devrik)

Ayrıntılar

1)- Aşağıdaki yapılar "As soon As" anlamına gelir ve iki tam cümleyi birbirine bağlarlar. Bunların ilk kısımları cümle başında kullanılırsa DEVRİK yapı gerektirler. Ortada kullanılırsa gerektirmezler.

no sooner… than…	Hardly… when…
Barely… when…	Scarcely … when…

No sooner had she hung up the phone than it rang again
She had no sooner hung up the phone than it rang again

Diğer 3 bağlaç da yukarıdaki "no sooner… than" yerine kullanılabilir.

2)- However normalde 2g bağlaçtır. Yani öncesinde mutlaka bir yargının olması gerekir. Fakat kendinden sonra Sıfat/zarf kullanırlırsa Although anlamına gelir ve 1g şeklinde kullanılır.

However + sıfat/zarf = Although (1g)

Bu kullanım gibi "As/though" de sıfat zarf alarak Although anlamı verebilir. Ama However'dan farklı olarak kendinden önce alır.

Sıfat/zarf + As/though = Although (1g)
However beautiful she is, Ali will not marry her.
Beautiful as she is, Ali will not marry her.
Beautiful though she is, Ali will not marry her.
Although she is beautiful, Ali will not marry her.

Çok Önemli Not!

Arkadaşlar bu kitaptaki hiçbir soru sizleri test etmek için oluşturulmadı. Her bir soru size konuyu kavratmak ve sizleri ilgili konuya maruz bırakmak için tasarlandı. Her konudaki test ve her testteki sorular belirli bir mantık ile ilerliyor. Yapamadığınız her soruda mutlu olmanız ve acaba neyi bilmiyorum henüz diye düşünmeniz bekleniyor. İsterseniz notlardan konuya bakabilirsiniz. İsterseniz videolardan ilgili soru çözümüne bakabilirsiniz. İsterseniz de www.phdakademi.com hocalarına sorularınızı doğrudan sorabilirsiniz.

Ayrıca bu kitapta asıl önemli olan şey metinler. Soru çözdürmemizin nedeni metinleri daha iyi anlamanızdır.

Relative Clauses Konu Anlatımı

Deneme sürümü Veys ☺!

Not: Who, which, that RC olduğunda RC içinde ya özne eksiktir ya da nesne eksiktir.

The girl /who was crying /was Ayşe. (özne eksik)

The girl /who I saw yesterday/was Ayşe. (see fiilinin nesnesi eksik)

Whose:

1- RP'den sonra bir isim geliyorsa ve 2- ismin önünde "a, an, the, my, his, her..., this, that" yoksa ve 3- RP'den sonra gelen isim önce gelen isme aitse Whose kullanırız.

The man/ whose son was crying / was Ali.

Not: RPden sonra "Son" ismi gelmiş. İsmin önünde "a, an, the, my..." yok. Ve "Son" oğul "the man" adama ait. (adamın Oğlu diyebiliriz)
Not: Whose hem insanlar için hem de insan olmayanlar için kullanılabilir.

The chair/ whose leg was broken / was mine. (chair insan değil ve whose kullanılmış)

Not: Whose anlamında bazen "of which" veya "of whom" kullanılabilir. Bu durumda iki isim anlamsız bir şekilde arka arkaya gelir.

The man the son of whom was crying was Ali. (böyle ardı ardına gelen isimlerin birincisi insansa "of whom")

The chair the leg of which was broken was mine. (böyle ardı ardına gelen isimlerin birincisi nesne ise "of which")

Not: Yukarıdaki durum whom'dan sonra fiil kullanılabilen istisnai durumlardan biridir. Diğer bir durum ise Quantifier + whom'dur. (many/few/one/each ..of whom)

Where:

Açıklanan kelime bir mekan ismi ise where/which/that düşünebiliriz. Where'in which ve that'ten farkı bir prep gerektiği zaman kullanılmasıdır.

The city/..... I was born / was Elazığ.

"I was born" cümlesinin içine açıklanan kelimeyi alıp koyarsak "in" prep'i gerekir. I was born in the city. Eğer burada olduğu gibi prep gerekiyorsa ve yoksa "where" ya da prep + which düşünürüz. Bu cümle için "in which". Dolayısı ile bu cümle iki şekilde de olabilir.

The city/where I was born / was Elazığ.

The city/ in which I was born /was Elazığ.

Not: Bazen prep, RPden önce değilde RCnin içinde kullanılabilir. Bu durumda where kullanılmaz. Which ya da That kullanılır.

The city/whichI was born in/ was Elazığ. / The city /that I was bon in /was Elazığ.

The city/.....Ali lives / is Elazığ (Açıklanan ismi slash içine alırsak Ali lives in the city olur. Dolayısıyla burada where ya da in which olabilir.

The city/..... I like very much/ is Elazığ. (Açıklanan ismi slash içine alalım. I like the city very much. Prep gerekmiyor dolayısıyla burada where kullanamayız. Which ya da That olur.

Not: Açıklanan isim mekansa ve RC içinde özne veya nesne eksikse orada "Where" kullanılmaz. Yukarıdaki cümlede like fiilinin nesnesi yok. Dolayısıyla burada Where olmaz. (Bu kural when/why için de geçerlidir.)
Not: where/when/why/whose/whom RPlerinden sonra fiil gelemez. Mutlaka bir özne gelmelidir. (whom'un bu konudaki istisnalarına dikkat)
The city/..... is very nice /is Elazığ. (Burada boşluktan sonra fiil geldiği için RP Where olamaz)

Not: Slash testi yerine RP'den sonra gelen RC'nin tam cümle olup olmadığına bakılarak da Where olup olmadığı anlaşılabilir. Tam cümle ise (öznesi veya nesnesi eksik değilse) where olur.

When:

Açıklanan kelime eğer zamana aitse "When, Which, That"',i RP olarak kullanabiliriz. "When" gerekip gerekmediğini "where"de olduğu gibi slash testi yaparak ya da boşluktan sonraki kısmın tam bir cümle olup olmadığına bakarak anlayabiliriz.

The year/ ..... I was born / was 1980. (Açıklanan kelimeyi RCnin içine alırsak prep gerekir. "I was born in the year". Bu durumda when ya da in which kullanılır.)

Not: Yukarıdaki örnekte Slash içindeki RCli kısmın tam cümle olup olmadığına bakarak da when olup olmadığını anlayabiliriz. "I was born" cümlesinde özne var. Nesneye gerek yok. Bu durumda when olur diye düşünebiliriz.

Not: Where'in yerine ne koyarsak koyalım mutlaka cümleye bir prep eklememiz gerek. Fakat When'in yerine that veya Ø koyduğumuzda prep'e gerek yoktur. Yani When yerine That veya Ø konabilir. Buna karşın when yerine which koyarsak RC içinde mutlaka bir prep olması gerek.

The year/.....I was born / was 1980.
When
That Ø
In which
Not: When'li RC tam bir cümle olmalıdır. Eğer özne veya nesne eksikse when kullanamayız.

The year/..... I like / is 1980. (like fiilinin nesnesi yok. Dolayısıyla when olmaz. Which ya da That olmalıdır.) (ya da slash testi yapıp slashler arasına açıklanan kelimeyi alırsak: "I like the year" olur ki prep'e gerek yok. Bu durumda prep'e gerek yoksa "when" kullanamayız.

Not: When/where/why/whose/whom'dan sonra fiil gelmez. Mutlaka bir özne olmalıdır.

Why:

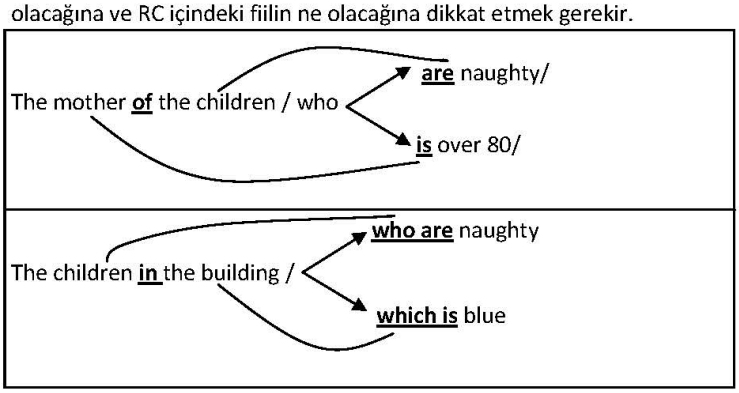

RC olarak sadece "reason ve explanation" kelimelerinden sonra kullanılabilir. Bu kelimelerden sonra da hem why hem de that/which kullanılabilir. Why kullanılabilmesi için RCnin tam bir cümle olması gerekir(özne fiil nesne). Why'ın yerine That ya da Ø konulabilir (prep gerekmeksizin). Fakat "why"'ın yerine "Which" koyulabilmesi için "For" prep'inin eklenmesi gerekir.

The reason/..... she told/ was the traffic. (RC tam bir cümle.)
Why
That Ø
For which

The reason/..... she told/ was the traffic. (cümlede tell fiilinin nesnesi yok. Yani eksik cümle)
Which — said
That — gave Ø — stated
~~why~~ — made

Not: RC içindeki fiiller kutucuk içindeki fiillerse anlam "ileri sürdüğü, söylediği, ifade ettiği neden" olur. Bu durumda da why kullanılmaz. Zaten fiilden sonraki nesne de eksik.

Not: Virgülden sonra RC olarak that ve omission (Ø) olmaz fakat reduction olur.
Not: Açıklanan isim konumunda iki isim prep'le bağlanmışsa her iki isim de RC ile açıklanabilir. Bu konumda RP'nin ne olacağına ve RC içindeki fiilin ne olacağına dikkat etmek gerekir.

Quantifier'lı RC'ler

I have got many students, many of whom are girls.

Not: Yukarıdaki cümlede "Whom" yerine "Them" koyamayız. İki tam cümle virgülle bağlanamaz.
Not: "Whom" quantifier'larla kullanıldığında kendinden sonra fiil olabilir. Bunun olduğu başka bir durum ise "whose" yerine konan iki ismin ardı ardına geldiği yapıdır. Bunlar dışında "Whom"'dan sonra fiil gelmez.
Not: "who, which, that"'in açıkladığı ismin tekil ya da çoğul olması RC'deki fiilin tekil ya da çoğul olmasını etkiler.

I have got many chairs, some of which are broken.
I have got many chairs, one of which is broken.

Sentential RC

Relative clause normalde her zaman bir ismi açıklar. Ama bazense tüm bir cümleyi niteler. Bu durumda anlamı "ki bu durum" olur. RP'den önce mutlaka bir virgül olmak zorundadır.

She failed the exam. This made her family sad.
She failed the exam, which made her family sad.

RC-NC-1g bağlaç

Relative clause, noun clause ve 1g bağlacı karıştırmamak gerekir. RC bir isimden sonra gelir ve onu açıklar. NC bir ismin kullanıldığı durumlarda (özne konumunda, fiilin nesnesi konumunda, prep'ten sonra, Sıfattan sonra, to be fiilinden sonra) kullanılır. 1g bağlaçsa iki tam cümleyi birbirine bağlar ve hem cümle başında hem de cümle ortasında kullanılabilir.

I don't know when she will come. ⟶ NC
I don't know the day when she will come. ⟶ RC
I will be happy when she comes / When she comes, I will be happy. ⟶ 1g bağlaç

Not: What ve How asla RC olarak kullanılamaz. Yani bir ismi açıklayamaz.
Not: what = the thing which
Not: RC'li kısım non-defining (virgüllü) ise ve açıklanan isim özne konumunda ise Reduction yapılıp virgül içi cümlenin banına alınabilir.

Always, usually, sometimes, occasionally, generally, never, often (sıklık zarflarıyla ve fiilden önce) Every year, every day, every month, every summer… Doğa olayları için (su yüz derecede kaynar, dünya yuvarlaktır) zaman zarfı kullanmaksızın bu zamanla ifade edebiliriz. Şimdiye kadar anlamı ile Geçmişte olan ama zaman belirtmediğimiz zaman. (I have learnt 100 words; I have been to İstanbul 5 times; Have you ever seen a monster?) İlla ilk o olacak yani burnundan kıl aldırmaz. Ilk olacak. Have done'ın geçmiş hali gibi olabilir. Şimdiye kadar değil de o ana kadar. For, since ile kullanılabilir ama bu konu burayı aşar videoya bakın. Zaman bağlaçları özellikle after, before, by the time için videoya bakın	5b'nin geçmişi gibi düşünün. O öğrenci kovulduktan sonra Veysel hoca beni kovdu (geçmişte). Oysa Vh beni kovduğunda tam 3 gündür çalışıyordum) 3c ile farkına dikkat o ne yaptığın önemli ise 3c. Zamanlar ve Zaman Bağlaçları Konu Anlatımları

Not: Bu materyal İngilizcedeki tenseleri öğretmek için değil test çözme tekniği vermek için hazırlanmıştır. İstisnalar dili olan İngilizcede her kuralın istisnası olabileceği gibi bu kuralların da istisnası olabilir.

Present	Past
Am is are	Was were
Do does	Did
Will	Would
Can	Could
Could	Could have done
May	Might
Might	Might have done
Will have done	Would have done
Should	Can't have done
Must	Must have done
	May have done
	Should have done
Have done	Had done
Has done

Not1: Zaman bağlaçları ve koşul bağlaçları zaman uyuşması (ZU) gerektirir. Zaman bağlacının bir tarafında yukarıdaki Past yapılardan biri varsa öteki tarafı da past olmalıdır. (Koşul Bağlaçları ve Amaç Bağlaçları için de ZU geçerlidir.

When: When farklı zaman kombinasyonları ile farklı anlamlar verebilir. Aşağıdaki kullanımların verdiği anlamlara dikkat edin. Tüm Zaman bağlaçları gibi When zaman bağlacı da hem past hem present yapılarla kullanılabilir.
When she came in, we ate dinner.
When she came in, we were eating dinner.
When she came in, we had eaten dinner.
When I was coming here, I saw Ayşe.

Not2: Zaman bağlacının olduğu yerde will, would, going to (wwg) olmaz.

Not3: Zaman bağlacının olmadığı tarafta have done/has done (hd) olmaz. Olacaksa bağlacın olduğu tarafta olacak. Ve bu anlamda have done gelecek zaman anlamını verir.

While: While iki olay için eş zamanlılık söz konusu iken kullanılır. Eylemin uzun olduğu kısım while ile ifade edilir.
While was doing, was doing (İki eylem de uzun ve eş zamanlı)
While was doing, did (Bir eylem uzun öteki kısa, eş zamanlı)

While did, did (Çok kullanılmamakla birlikte birinci örnekle aynı anlamı verir.)

While did, ~~was doing~~

Not4: While zaman bağlacıyken perfect tenselerle (have done/has done/had done) kullanılmaz

As = while (as, while ile eş anlamlı olarak kullanılabilir. Ama bağlaç iken Because anlamı da verebilir. Because anlamında ise zaman uyuşması zorunlu değildir.) (Ayrıca artma azalma bildiren fiillerle (increase, decrease, grow…) ve comparative sıfatlar ile (bigger, taller, more beautiful) -dıkça, -dikçe anlamını da verebilir.

Just as I was locking the door, the phone rang. (Just as while'dan daha vurguludur. Tam birşey olurken başka birşey oldu anlamını verir.) (Just as'in "tam da olduğu gibi" anlamı da vardır. Bu ikinci anlamında zaman uyuşması zorunlu değildir.

After:
After had: before did (Had done After'ın olmadığı tarafta olmaz. Ya da before'un olduğu tarafta olmaz.)
After had done/did , did (past)
After do/does/have done , will (present)

Not5: After ve before cont. tenseleri sevmez (Sos tablosundaki 3. Sütunu sevmez).

Not6: Have done zaman bağlaçlarının olduğu tarafta gelecek zaman anlamı verir.

After we have finished our lesson, we will go home.

Before:
Before did , had done/did (past)
Before do/does/have done , will (present)

Before we have finished our lesson, nobody will go home

Whenever: Her ne zaman anlamında kullanılır. Hem past anlamda hem de present anlamda kullanılabilir.

Whenever she gets ill, she stays at home.
Whenever she got ill, she stayed at home.

Not7: Every time eğer iki cümleyi bağlıyorsa Whenever ile eş anlamlıdır ver onun yerine kullanılabilir.

As soon as = the moment = the minute = immediately = once

Not8: As soon as after'a uyar. Yani After'daki tense kombinasyonları as soon as için de geçirlidir.

Not9: As soon as ve as soon as anlamına gelen bağlaçlarla cont. tenseler kullanılmaz. (Sos tablosunda hem 3. Sütunu hem de 5. Sütunu)

By the time:

By the time did , had done/was (past)

By the time does/have done , will have done/will be (present)

By the time she comes at 8, I will have finished my homework
By the time she came at 8, I had finished my homework

Not10: By the time'ın olduğu cümlede had done olmaz.

Not11: by the time ile by eş anlamlıdır. Fakat by the time'dan sonra bir cümle gelir. By'dan sonra bir isim gelir.

By 1950, had done/was (Bu kullanımda by'a bağlı past bir ifade varsa had done/was kullanılır.)
By 2050, will have done/will be (Bu kullanımda by'a bağlı past bir ifade varsa will have done/will be kullanılır.)

Until:

Çevirisi by the time ile aynı şekilde yapılabilmesine rağmen anlamları çok farklıdır. By the time'da temel cümle (bağlacın olmadığı cümle) daha önce gerçekleşir. Fakat Until'de yan cümle (bağlacın olduğu cümle) önce gerçekleşir ve hemen sonrasında temel cümle gerçekleşir. Until temel cümledeki eylemin değişim anını gösterir.

Until she speaks to me, I will not speak to her. (o benimle konuşuncaya kadar ben onunla konuşmayacağım. Önce o konuşacak sonra ben konuşacağım.)

Until she spoke to me, I didn't speak to her. (o benimle konuşuncaya kadar ben onunla konuşmadım. Önce o konuştu sonra ben konuştum) (konuşmadım konuşmadım konuşmadım; o benimle konuştuğu andan itibaren ben onunla konuştum.)

By the time she comes home, I will have finished all my homework. (o gelinceye kadar ben ÇOOOOKTAAAAAN ödevimi bitirmiş olacağım.) (once ödevi bireceğim sonra o gelecek)

Not12: FIDOW (Normal şartlar altında last ve past kelimeleri past tense akla getirir. Ama kullanımda have done/has done düşünülmelidir. Fido olabilmesi için aşağıdaki tablodaki üç koşulunda olması gerekir.

For	the last	five years
In	the past	(süreç)
During	recent
Over Within

Not13: For genellikle perfect tenselerle kullanılmasına rağmen sadece bunlara özgü bir yapı değildir. Hemen hemen tüm zamanlarla kullanılabilir. Present perfect (have done) ile kullanılması için geçmişten şimdiye kadar eylemin sürmesi gerekir.
I stayed in Ankara for six years. (Geçmişte)
I will stay in Niğde for ten years. (Gelecekte)
I have been in Niğde for one year. (I am in Niğde now). (Şimdiye kadar)

Not14: For, is doing/was doing/will be doing ile kullanılmaz. Sos tablosundaki 3. Sütun ile kullanılmaz

Not15: Since eğer "den beri" anlamında ise Since'in olduğu taraf past bir ifade (hem cümle olabilir hem de isim/öbek) diğer taraf ise present perfect olur.
Since 1980, he has learnt 3 languages. He has learnt 3 languages since 1980
Since he came here, he has learnt 3 languages He has learnt 3 languages since he came here

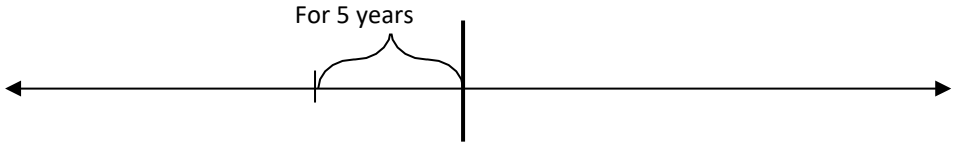

Not16: Since'in yukardaki kullanımının bir istisnası vardır. Since/ever since/since then cümlenin en sonunda ise içinde bulunduğu cümle present perfect. Ondan önceki cümle ise past olur.

Did . have done ,since/ever since/since then .

Not17: Since'le başlayan süreç şimdiye kadar sürmeyip geçmişte bitiyorsa present perfect (have done) yerine past perfect (had done) kullanılır.

Not18: Past perfect tense (had done) carrrrt diye kullanılmaz. Yani past perfect tense için mutlaka başka bir past olay olmalıdır. Dolayısıyle had done ile present bir yapı bir araya gelmez. (Burada üçüncü bir cümlenin olup olmadığına dikkat edilmelidir.)
Not19: had done ile was doing kedi kopek gibidir. (Burada üçüncü bir cümlenin olup olmadığına dikkat edilmelidir.)

Not19: Uzun Çizgi Kalıpları (have been doing/had been doing/will have been doing). Sos tablosu üzerindeki 5. Sütun. Bu kullanımda olayın ne kadaaaaar zamandır olduğu vurgulanır. Bana her iş yerinde olan hiçbir iş yapmayıp hep çok çalıştığını ima eden tipleri hatırlatır. (Tam 5 saaaattir çalışıyorum (have been doing). Patron beni aradığında tam 5 saattir çalışıyordum (had been doing). Patron sen geldiğinde tam beş saattir çalışıyor olacağım (will have been doing) :PPPPP (şerlerinden Allah'a sığınırız.)

Yukarıdaki zaman çizelgesindeki uzun çizgi eğer şimdi ise have been doing.
eğer geçmişte ise had been doing eğer gelecekte ise will have been doing.
Now = I have been learning English for 5 years. (Şimdiye kadar 5 yıldır İngilizce öğreniyorum.)
Past = I had been learning English for 5 years when I came to Ereğli. (Ereğli'ye geldiğimde 5 yıldır İngilizce öğreniyordum)
Future= I will have been learning English for 5 years when I finish this English course. (Bu kursu bitirdiğimde 5 yıldır İngilizce öğreniyor olacağım.)

Not20: Once, twice, three times…, just, already, yet, always, sometimes (sıklık zarfları)…, ever, never ve sayısal veriler (3 sayfa, beş tane) Present perfect Continuous (have been doing) ile kullanılmaz.

Not21: Before cümlenin sonunda tek başına kullanıldığında "daha önce" anlamına gelir ve anlam present ise have done anlam past ise had done kullanılır.
I haven't seen a snake before. (daha önce bir yılan görmedim.)
Last year I went to Elazığ and I saw a snake there. I hadn't seen a snake before.

NOUN CLAUSES'DA ZAMAN UYUŞMASI

Noun Clause'un birinci tarafı eğer present ise ikinci taraf hem past hem de present olabilir. Fakat Noun clause'un ilk tarafı past ise ikinci taraf Past olmalıdır.
I think that she is 15.
I think that she was 15.
I thought that she was 15.

~~I thought that she is 15.~~

Not22: NCnin ilk tarafı past olmasına rağmen ikinci taraftaki cümle eğer genel geçer bir durumsa ya da doğa olayı ise present olabilir fakat bu durumda da past olması daha uygundur.

Galileo said that the earth is round. Galileo said that the earth was round.

Not23: Noun Clause'larda da cümlenin bir kısmı had done öteki kısmı present bir yapı olamaz. Caaaarttt kalıbı

Passives Konu Anlatımı

BE + V3= passive

Am is are Was were Been Being To be be	V3	= Passive

Not: Active'i passive'e çevirirken, nesne özne konumuna alınır (Kulak olayı). Be fiili cümlenin zamanına göre çekilir. Ve cümlenin asıl fiili V3 yapılır.

Ali washed the car. (The car nesne. Passive'e çevrilirken özne konumuna alınır (Kulak olayı). Cümlenin zamanı past tense. Past tense'te be= was/were. Ve sonra da V3 getirilir.
The car was washed.

Not: Passive sorularını çözerken iki adımda çözmeliyiz:
1: Özneye ve fiile bakarız. Özne o işi yapabilir mi yapamaz mı? ya da özne yapar mı yapılır mı?
2: Fiile ve nesnesine bakarız. Fiil nesne alabiliryorsa devamında nesne var mı yok mu? Varsa active, yoksa passive

The car .....(wash) when I was shopping.
Adım 1: araba yıkama eylemini yapabilir mi? Araba yıkar mı yıkanır mı?
Adım 2: Wash fiili geçişli (nesne alabilen bir fiil). Devamında nesne var mı yok mu?

Not: Geçişsiz fiiller (nesne alamayan fiiller) passive olamazlar. Mesala yükselmek, oturmak, çökmek, düşmek

Not: İngilizcede bir fiil nesne alabiliyorsa mutlaka nesnesi ile kullanılmalıdır. Dolayısıyla eğer nesne alabilen bir fiilden sonra nesnesi yoksa o cümle passive'dir. The car was washed cümlesinde wash'tan sonra nesnesi yok çünkü passive konumunda nesnesi cümlenin öznesi konumuna geçmiştir.

Not: İki nesne alan fiillere (give, tell gibi) dikkat etmek gerekir. Bunların her iki nesnesi de passive konumuna özne konumuna alınabilir. Dolaysıyla passive konumda iken bile devamında bir nesnesi olur.

I told Ayşe a story. / Ayşe was told a story / A story was told to Ayşe.

Not: Develop/improve gibi fiillere dikkat etmek gerekir. Bu fiiller hem geçişli hem de geçişsiz olarak kullanılabilirler. Yani hem gelişmek (geçişsiz) hem de geliştirmek (geçişli) anlamında kullanılabilirler. Dolaysıyla nesnesine bakarken dikkat etmek zorundayız.

Not: Bazen "be V3" yerine "get V3"'le de passive yapılabilir.

Not: Aşağıdaki tabloda 1. Sütundaki fiiller kesinlikle geçişli olarak çevrilmelidir. 2. sütundaki –ing eki almış halleri özellik bildiren sıfatlardır. 3. Sütundaki –ed almış halleri duygu bildiren sıfatlardır.

Bore (sıkmak)	Boring (sıkıcı)	Bored
Interest (ilgilendirmek)	Interesting	Interested
Tire (yormak)	Tiring	Tired
Excite(heyecanlandırmak)	Exciting	Excited
Frighten (korkutmak)	Frightening	Frightened
Surprise (şaşırtmak)	Surprising	Surprised
Disappoint (hayal kırıklığına uğrat-)	Disappointing	Disappointed

Causatives Konu Anlatımı

Have somebody do something	Get somebody to do something
I had Ali wash my car.	I got Ali to wash my car.
Have something done	Get something done
I had my car washed	I got my car washed

Not: Have somebody do something ve get somebody do something kalıplarında fiilden sonra nesnenin olduğuna dikkat edin. Eğer fiilden sonra nesne varsa bu iki kalıbı kullanırız. İkisi arasındaki temel fark ise "have" ile "V1" kullanılması "get" ile ise "to V1" kullanılmasıdır.

Not: have something done ve get something done kalıplarında fiilden sonra nesne kullanılmaz.

Not: Make somebody do something kalıbını da causative olarak düşünürüz.

She makes me smile (V1)

She makes me happy (sıfat)

Some people become very close to you.

Those people are the ones who become your good friends.

Did you ever wonder why certain people do become your good friends?

We were having a difficult time walking against the wind.

The wind was pushing against us, and we felt the force of it pressing against us.

We even had a hard time breathing. We were walking slowly.

We watched the leaves as they danced and twirled in the wind.

We watched a plastic bag as it flew by us.

We saw a little boy whose baseball cap flew right off his head.

His cap flew along the sidewalk, and he had to chase it.

He finally caught it, and he held it in his hands tightly after he got it back.

The trees were swaying frantically. Their branches swished and waved in the wild wind.

John and I were hit by flying bits of paper and leaves.

We laughed when a garbage can lid rolled along and hit John in the leg.

We saw another garbage can rolling along the road as if it was alive.

Everything was moving because of the wind. Then, the funniest thing happened.

I wasn't paying any attention, and a paper bag came flying up the street toward us.

It hit me right in the face and covered my whole face.

At first, I didn't know what had happened. I was blinded.

I couldn't see where I was going. I stopped and held out my hands.

When I stopped, the bag fell off my face. I looked at John.

He was laughing very hard. He was laughing so hard that tears were rolling down his cheeks.

He said that I looked very funny with the brown paper bag stuck to my face.

I started to laugh too. We laughed about it all the way to school.

John said that he wished he had a camera.

8. Advice

Sometimes my mother gives me advice.

She tells me to save my money for a rainy day.

She says that I should eat my vegetables if I want to be strong when I grow up.

She says that you reap what you sow. I didn't know what that one meant, so I asked her.

She said that if you are good to people, they will be good to you.

If you do bad things, then bad things will come back to you.

My mother is always giving me advice. She says that a penny saved is a penny earned.

I am still thinking about that one.

Some of these things are difficult to understand.

My mother is very wise.

She says that she has learned from her mistakes.

She tells me that she would like me not to make mistakes, but she says that everyone does make mistakes.

The important thing is that we learn from our mistakes.

My mother says that nobody is perfect.

My mother tells my sister that time is precious.

My sister wastes time, and my mother doesn't like that.

My mother tells me to be true to myself. She says that I should not follow the crowd.

I listen to my mother. I think she gives very good advice.

My mother has a lot of common sense. I hope I am as wise as she is when I have children of my own.

Sometimes I wish that she would not give me so much advice.

I think that I know what I'm doing.

But, in the end, I always remember what she has said, and I try to live by the standards that she has set for me.

The doctor and the nurses will be busy in the operating room. They will be getting ready to perform my surgery.

The doctor will say hello to me and tell me that he is going to put me to sleep.

10. What My Cat Did

One day I was sitting in a chair drinking a cup of tea.

My cat came into the room and sat on my lap.

She was quite content, and she sat there purring.

My cat likes to drink water, and sometimes she drinks milk.

I would never give her tea to drink. Cats just don't drink tea.

We were sitting there quietly when suddenly my cat stood up.

She was looking at something on the floor.

She crouched down low and got ready to pounce.

It was a huge centipede. I think that centipedes are ugly.

They have many legs, and they move very fast.

I would hate to have one crawl over me.

I was surprised that she caught the centipede.

She put her paw on it, and then she reached down and ate the centipede.

The centipede must not have tasted very good.

My cat got a funny look on her face, and she looked like she was trying to get a bad taste out of her mouth.

I was thinking that I would be sick if I ate a centipede.

My cat looked at me and jumped back up in my chair.

She stuck her face in my teacup and took a big drink of tea.

I was shocked. I had never seen a cat drink tea before.

I think that the centipede must have tasted so bad that my cat just needed something to wash the taste out of her mouth.

Guess what? I didn't finish my tea. I threw it out and washed out the cup.

My cat has never had a drink of tea since that day.

If Clauses Konu Anlatımı

Not 1: If olan tarafta will, would, going to olmaz. (wwg kuralı)
Not 2: If olmayan tarafta did, were, had done olmaz.
Not 3: Present perfect tense (have done) olacaksa koşul bağlacının olduğu tarafta olacak. Diğer tarafta olmaz. (hd kuralı)
Not 4: should have done, may have done if clauses'larda kullanılmaz.
Not 5: If clauses'larda zaman uyuşması gerekir. (ZU kuralı)

Type 1	If do/does _____, will _____. If it doesn't rain tomorrow, I will go on a picnic. If you study hard, you can pass the exam. If I learn English, I can find a job.	Real	Present

Mixed type

Mixed type'da sadece type2 ile type 3 karıştırılabilir. Yani ya 23 ya da 32 olur.
Type 2: If _____ did/were _____ (now), _____ would _____ (now). (Unreal, Present) (22)
Type 3: If _____ had done _____ (yesterday), _____ would have done (yesterday). (Unreal, Past) (33)

Type2'ta cümlenin her iki tarafının anlamı da present'tır. Type 3'te her iki tarafın anlamı da past'tır. Mixed:
If _____ did/were _____ (now), _____ would have done _____ (yesterday). (23)
If _____ had done _____ (yesterday), _____ would _____ (now). (32)

If you had studied hard last week, you wouldn't be crying now.

If he weren't a rude man, he wouldn't have hit his wife yesterday.
(Eğer kaba bir adam olmasaydı (her zaman), dün karısına vurmazdı.) (23)

If clauses'ların devrik halleri

Type1'de: If kaldırılır ve yerine Should konur. Should olduğunda cümlenin içindeki fiili should'a gore çekmek gerek.

If you study hard, you will pass the exam. — You will pass the exam if you study hard.
Should you study hard, you will pass the exam — You will pass the exam should you study hard.

If she studies hard, she will pass the exam. — Should she study hard, she will pass the exam.
If you are happy, clap your hands. — Should you be happy, clap your hands.

Type 2'de: if kaldırılır ve yerine were konur. Eğer cümle de fiil varsa fiil infinitive'e çevirilir.

If I were you, I would study hard — I would study hard if I were you.
Were I you, I would study hard. — I would study hard were I you
If I liked him, I would invite him to my party. — Were I to like him, I would invite him to my party.

Type 3'te: if kaldırılır yerine had konur.

If you had studied, you would have passed the exam. — You would have passed the exam if you had studied
Had you studied, you would have passed the exam — You would have passed the exam had you studied.

Koşul bağlaçları:

If	unless	only if	in case	provided (that)	providing(that)
As long as	So long as	Whether.or not	Suppose that	Supposing that	Even if

If As long as So long as Provided that Providing that	you study hard, you can pass the exam.
Only if	you study hard, can you pass the exam.

Not: Tablodaki bağlaçların hepsi aynı anlamda kullanılabilir. Neredeyse aynı anlamı verirler. Aralarında sadece vurgu farkı vardır.
Not: Only if, only after, only before, only because gibi only'li yapılar cümlenin başında kullanıldığında ikinci taraf devrik olur. Yani yardımcı fiil özneden önce gelir. (tablodaki can you'da olduğu gibi.)

Unless (if not)
Unless you study, you can't pass the exam. (Sen ders çalışmadıkça sınavı geçemezsin.)(Eğer ders çalışmazsan sınavı geçemezsin.)
If you don't study, you can't pass the exam.

Even If (-se bile, -sa bile)
Even if they don't invite me, I will go to the party. (onlar davet etmese bile ben partiye gideceğim) (ister davet etsinler ister etmesinler her halükarda partiye gideceğim.)

Whether … or not
Whether they invite me to the party or not, I will go to the party. (ister davet etsinler ister etmesinler partiye gideceğim. Her halükarda gideceğim. Bu anlamıyla even if'e benzer.)
I will go to the party whether they invite me to the party or not.

Not: whether… or not'ın bu bağlaç olarak kullanımını Noun clause olan whether… or not ile karıştırmamak gerekir. Bağlaç iken cümlenin iki kısmı yer değiştirebilir. Noun clause olduğunda ise değiştirilemez ve sadece NCnin kullanılabileceği konumlarda kullanılabilir.

I don't know whether she will come or not (Know fiilinin nesnesi yani NC)
I am not interested in whether she will come or not (prep'ten sonra yani NC)

In case (şemsiye kalıbı)
In case'in olduğu cümlede istenmeyen bir durum söz konusudur. Diğer cümlede ise o duruma karşı aldığınız tedbir.

In case it rains, I will take my umbrella. (Belki yağmur yağar diye şemsiyemi alacağım) (Yağsa da yağmasa da tedbir olarak şemsiyeyi alacağım.

Not: In case ile So that'i birbirine karıştırmamak gerek. In case'den sonra istemediğimiz kötü bir durum gelir so that'ten sonra ise istediğimiz amaç edindiğimiz bir durum gelir. In case "-ir diye" olarak çevrilir. "So that" ise "-sın diye" olarak çevrilir.

She studies very hard so that she won't fail the exam.
She studies very hard in case she fails.

WISH

Not 1: Wish'ten sonra present bir yapı gelmez.
Not 2: Wish'in iki tarafındaki özne aynı ise would olmaz.
Not 3: Wish'ten sonra gelen were, did, would, could present anlam taşır. Wish'ten sonra gelen had done, would have done ve could have done past anlam taşır.

Not: Bu durumu anlamak için İngilizce'deki hayal durumunu kavramak gerekir. Eğer hayal kuruyorsanız olması gereken zamanın bir derece past'ını almanız gerekir. Wish'ler ile daima bir hayal durumu söz konusu olduğundan hep present her yapının past'ının alınması gerekir. Bu yüzden present bir yapı gelmez.

I wish I lived in Muğla, now. (keşke şimdi Muğlada yaşasaydım. Hayal) (Gerçek durum I live in Niğde. :P)
I wish I could swim, now. (keşke yüzebilseydim. Hayal.) (Gerçek durum I can't swim.)

A matchbox would make a good bed with a handkerchief as a bedspread.

You'd brush your hair with a toothbrush, but you'd never find anything small enough to brush your teeth with.

You could take a ride on the back of a mouse.

You wouldn't find any books that were small enough to read, but you might read the back of a pill bottle.

You could ride in a toy car and have a soup bowl for a swimming pool.

A leaf could be your umbrella, and a mitten would make a great sleeping bag.

If you used your imagination, you could think up something to use for almost all your purposes.

Being small might be fun, but then again, it would be frightening.

I'd be afraid of my pet cat. I wouldn't want a book to fall on me.

I would be afraid of being swept away by a big gust of wind. I think I'd rather be my size.

12. If I were a Giant

If I were a giant, I wouldn't be able to fit in my house.

I'd have to live in a building that had a high ceiling, but I'd probably have a hard time getting through the door.

I'd have to make my own clothes, but where would I get a giant needle and thread to sew with?

I couldn't ride in a car or a plane. I suppose I would just have to take giant steps to get from place to place.

I would have to be very careful not to step on anybody or anything.

When I talked, people would cover their ears. My voice would sound very loud to them.

I wouldn't find shoes to cover my feet. I wouldn't find a knife and fork to eat my dinner with.

I might have to use a rake as a fork. My dinner would be huge.

What would I cook my dinner in? I certainly wouldn't find an oven big enough to put my dinner in.

If I sneezed, it would be like a hurricane. If I fell down, it would be like an earthquake.

I wouldn't have any friends because everyone would be too tiny for me to talk to.

I think that being a giant would be very lonely.

I couldn't have just one apple.

I would have to have a lot of apples to fill me up.

I would have to drink gallons and gallons of water to quench my thirst.

I could never relax under a tree. I would be taller than all the trees.

I don't think that being a giant would be fun. I won't ever make a wish to be a giant.

I would rather be my height. I'm very happy the way I am.

13. Do People Have the Right to Smoke in Public?

My father used to smoke. He got very ill. The doctor told him that he had to quit smoking. My father tried for a long time to quit.

It was very difficult for him. Smoking is an addiction.

After many months, my father finally gave up smoking, but he still craved a cigarette once in a while.

He says that quitting smoking is the hardest thing that he has ever done. When my father did smoke, he smoked everywhere.

He smoked in restaurants, stores and many public buildings.

Now, you are not allowed to smoke in a lot of public places.

When my father smoked, the rules were not so strict.

People could smoke just about anywhere.

It really wasn't fair to the people who didn't smoke.

Their clothes always smelled like smoke, and they breathed in second hand smoke.

Some people think that second hand smoke is actually worse for you than if you smoke yourself.

People would smoke in their houses, and very young children would inhale the smoke that was in the air.

Some people still smoke in their houses, and their children breathe in the smoke.

Some restaurants have areas for smokers and nonsmokers, but usually the smoke drifts from one area to the other.

There are some businesses that have banned smoking altogether.

Personally, I think that smoking in public places should be completely banned.

I don't think that I should have to breathe in another person's smoke if I choose not to smoke myself.

It wouldn't be fair for a nonsmoker to get lung cancer because they had to be in a place where smokers were allowed to light up.

I know that smoking is a powerful addiction and that it is very difficult to quit, but smokers should restrict their smoking to places where there is nobody else around.

Lung cancer is an awful disease. Nobody should have to suffer from lung cancer.

People should be educated about the dangers of smoking.

Smoking should be banned in public places, but eventually I would like to believe that fewer people will smoke.

It would be nice to live in a smoke-free-environment.

14. My Favorite Bedtime Story

Every night when I was little, my mother would read me a bedtime story.

My favorite story was Tom's Midnight Garden.

This was a story by Philippa Pearce.

It was quite a long book, and it took quite a few nights for my mother to read the entire book to me.

In Tom's Midnight Garden Tom moves to the city to stay with his aunt and uncle.

He is very bored at their apartment. They have no children, so Tom has nothing to do.

One night, the clock strikes thirteen times.

Tom knows that this is impossible. A clock can only strike up to twelve times.

He sneaks downstairs and goes outside.

When he gets outside, there is a wonderful garden that wasn't there the day before.

The next day, Tom goes outside and finds that there is no garden.

The garden only seems to appear at night.

Every night, Tom slips out to this wonderful garden, and he meets some people in the garden.

He meets a girl named Hattie. Hattie and Tom become very good friends in this garden.

Some very strange things happen in this book.

There are some coincidences that keep you guessing about what is really going on.

The surprise ending is wonderful.

I really enjoyed Tom's Midnight Garden and I was very sad when my mother and I came to the end of the book.

I felt that I had visited the magical garden with Tom.

It is a book that I will remember all of my life.

15. If I Found a Magic Lamp

If I was walking down the beach one day, and I happened to bump my toe on a magic lamp, I would pick it up and rub it.

If it was a real magic lamp (but I don't believe that there really is a magic lamp), a genie would pop out in a cloud of smoke, and he would call me master.

He would say that he would grant me three wishes.

I would have to think very hard about those wishes because I wouldn't want to waste them.

I don't think I'd want millions of dollars.

Money doesn't buy happiness, or so they say.

I might wish for good health, because if your health isn't good you won't be able to enjoy anything.

Some people might wish for beauty, but beauty is only skin deep.

Some people would wish for a mansion, or a beautiful car or a big boat.

I don't want any of those things. Some people would want fame.

Some people would want talent. Some people would wish for happiness.

That might be a good thing to wish for.

Yes, maybe I'd wish for health and happiness, but what would my third wish be?

I could wish for something enormous, something global. I could wish for world peace.

That would be a wonderful thing if somebody could grant me that.

Yes, that would probably be my third wish.

It's too bad there aren't any genies inside magic lamps.

I won't get my three wishes. I can still work toward getting my wishes.

I can eat well and exercise to stay healthy.

I can be involved with a lot of things and be with my friends to stay happy.

I can volunteer my time to different organizations to help achieve world peace.

I can do my fair share in my community to help others.

That's how I can get my three wishes, not through a magic lamp.

I can only get what I want through self-determination and hard work.

That is the key to getting your wishes fulfilled.

16. Superstitions

I am not superstitious, are you? Yesterday was Friday the thirteenth.

Some people think that Friday the thirteenth is an unlucky day.

I think that it is just like any other day.

Some people believe that if a black cat crosses your path, you will have bad luck.

I don't believe that either. My mother always gets upset if I open an umbrella in the house.

She says that it is bad luck.

She is probably right about that one because an open umbrella would take up a lot of space, and you might knock things over.

If your left hand is itchy, you are supposed to get money.

I have had an itchy left hand before, but I haven't received any money because of it.

It is bad luck to walk under a ladder.

This is probably true because you might knock somebody off the ladder, or have a can of paint fall on top of you.

If you are acting in a play, it is bad luck if someone says "good luck" to you. This is very confusing.

You are supposed to tell an actor to "break a leg." It doesn't mean that you want the actor to break his leg.

It means good luck to the actor. Actors have a lot of superstitions that are very unusual.

I am not superstitious. I don't believe in superstitions at all.

It is just fun to learn about superstitions.

Some of them are very old and have been passed down from generation to generation.

I once did a project at school on superstitions.

It was a very interesting topic, and I got a good mark for it.

17. Help

Did you ever have to call for help? Were you ever in a situation that was an emergency?

It is good to know what to do in case of an emergency.

You should always know how to get in touch with the police and fire departments.

I have read stories where very young boys or girls have called the police and saved their friend's or family member's lives because they knew just who to get hold of.

If you see a fire, you should call the fire department.

A lot of tragedies have been prevented because the calls have been made quickly.

It is important that emergency vehicles arrive very quickly. That is why those vehicles have sirens.

When their sirens go, it means to get out of the way.

Policemen, firemen and ambulance attendants are trained to handle very difficult situations.

They often save peoples' lives. They go through a lot of training to become good at what they do.

They never panic in emergencies.

For your part, you should keep emergency numbers near the phone, or know what the emergency numbers are.

Where I live, there is a special number that you call for any emergency.

We teach that number to everyone, even very tiny children. It is important to remain calm if you need help.

If you call an emergency number, you have to be able to speak clearly, and tell the person you are talking to exactly what the problem is.

I hope you are never in an emergency situation, but it is a good idea to be prepared.

18. The Peach Orchard

When I was very young, I lived near a peach orchard.

Now, there is a park where the orchard used to be.

I always remember the peach orchard because my grandmother and I used to go there and pick peaches.

The owner of the orchard would let all the neighbors pick peaches.

It's not the fact that I used to get many ripe, tasty peaches that I remember but it's the time that I used to spend with my grandmother that I remember. (çevirene helal valla; şişen şişene ☺!)

My grandmother was very old, but she was very healthy.

She used to walk a lot. I think that is what kept her fit.

She had a lot of energy, so she liked to go to a lot of places.

She would get a fruit basket, and then she would ask me if I wanted to go to the orchard.

I always said yes because I enjoyed walking through the orchard on a sunny day.

We never climbed up on a ladder to reach the peaches; we just reached for the low hanging fruit.

My grandmother and I used to talk all the time that we were out there. It was nice to spend time with her.

She told me many stories about when she was a young girl.

We laughed and got to know each other better.

My grandmother only visited us during the summer.

She lived in California, and I lived in Niagara Falls, so we didn't get to spend a lot of time with each other.

We enjoyed the hot summer days in the orchard.

You could smell the peaches, and the bees buzzed lazily by us.

My grandmother would point out different insects and birds to me.

I learned a lot about nature from her. We would end up with a big basket of peaches.

When we got home, my mother would wash the peaches, and often she would bake a peach pie for us.

Nobody bakes a peach pie like my mother. It's good to have memories like that.

Childhood memories of time spent with my grandmother are very precious to me.

Sometimes, it's just the simple things that you do in life that leave you with the nicest memories. (şişin gayri)

19. Learning to Dance

I went to England with my mother. She used to be a singer in a band.

We went to the hotel that she used to sing at. It was a big fancy hotel.

Some of the people that she knew when she sang in the band were still there.

They remembered my mother, and they had a good time talking to her and remembering old times.

Many people told me that I looked like my mother.

In the hotel, they had a fancy hall where they had ballroom dancing.

I am not used to that kind of dancing. I always dance to rock music.

A man told me that he would teach me how to dance.

It looked very easy. I held one of his hands, and put my other hand on his shoulder.

He told me exactly how to move my feet.

I was very clumsy, and I stepped on his toes.

He was patient with me, and he counted "one, two, three." I tried to waltz with him.

I would start out pretty well, but then I would get mixed up and stand on his toes again.

The man laughed about it.

I told him that I wasn't a very good dancer, but he said that I was good for a beginner.

I think he was just being polite. The man asked my mother to dance.

My mother is a very good dancer. I didn't know that about her.

She never stepped on the man's toes once.

The man thanked us for dancing with him, and I thanked him for giving me dancing lessons.

I don't think I'll ever be very good at that type of dancing.

Each generation has a specific type of dancing.

The way that I dance is different from the way that my mother dances.

The way that I dance doesn't involve moving your feet too much.

I'm not too good at fancy steps.

20. Super Heroes

When my brother was very young, he loved super heroes.

He collected plastic figures of all the super heroes.

I think he had every super hero figurine that there was.

He used to tie a towel over his shoulders and run through the back yard.

He pretended that he was rescuing people. One time he stood on the roof.

He really thought that he could fly with his super hero cape on.

He would have hurt himself if he had jumped. My dad saw him and told him to get down.

My dad explained to my brother that super heroes are not real.

Real people cannot fly from rooftops. My brother was disappointed.

He thought that the super heroes really existed.

My dad explained that most super heroes were created as comic book characters.

Somebody used their imagination to make them up, and then an artist drew them.

My brother was not impressed. He said that he wanted to meet the super heroes.

My father told him that he might meet someone dressed up as a super hero, but it wouldn't really be a super hero in the costume.

It is hard to explain to small children that the things that they see in comic books and on television aren't really real. (sıkıysa yapın görek)

My brother still pretends that he is a super hero.

He doesn't jump from rooftops, but he runs around and makes noises like he is flying.

I look at him and remember when I used to do things like that. I'm more mature than my brother.

I know that super heroes aren't real, but I know that he is having fun and using his imagination.

21. Being a Princess

Sometimes, I think that I would like to be a princess.

A princess would live in a palace and wear beautiful clothes.

She would have servants to do chores for her, and she would probably marry a handsome prince.

People would recognize her. They would wave to her as she drove by.

It seems like it would be a lot of fun to be a princess. But maybe it wouldn't be so nice.

Maybe it would be terrible to be recognized by everyone.

Maybe a princess would feel like everyone was watching her.

She would have to look nice every time she left the palace.

There would always be people with cameras who wanted to take her picture.

A princess would have no privacy.

Even in her own palace, there would be servants around, so she would never really be alone.

If I were a princess, I would worry about security for my family.

Sometimes, people who are in high positions are threatened by other people.

That would be a worry. I'm not so sure that being a princess would be all that much fun.

I think it might be better to be just a normal person like me.

I don't have to worry about looking wonderful all the time.

People don't follow me around and take my picture.

Whenever you see a picture of a princess, she is smiling.

I wonder if she is smiling on the inside, or just smiling for the camera.

22. My Worst Fear

I am afraid of water. I don't know why I am afraid.

I have never had a bad experience in the water.

I just never learned to swim. I should have done that when I was just little.

It would be easier for me to swim now if I had started when I was young.

I will go into the shallow water, but I start to panic when the water gets higher than my chest.

I don't like the feeling of not being able to put my feet on the bottom of the pool or the lake.

I don't like to get water up my nose. I choke and cough when that happens.

My friends just tell me to relax and then I will float, but I find it hard to relax in deep water.

They keep telling me that if I panic I will sink. Most of my friends have had swimming lessons.

Some of them are even lifeguards.

They have tried to teach me to swim, but I think I need to go to a place where they actually teach swimming.

It would be so nice to jump into a pool of cold water on a hot summer day.

That would be so refreshing. If I go out onto a boat, I always wear a life jacket.

I think it is wise to do that. Everyone should wear a life jacket on a boat.

I would rather be safe than sorry. I have decided that I will overcome my fear.

I will go and take swimming lessons. I have a goal.

By this time next year, I would like to be able to swim the length of the pool without being afraid.

It is best to face your fears and deal with them.

I hope that I can overcome my fear of water.

23. If I Live to be 100

It is an entire century. Imagine all the changes that you would see if you lived to be 100.

I had a neighbor who was 85.

She used to tell me what things were like when she was a little girl.

She told me what my town used to look like, what her clothes were like, and what her school was like.

I used to enjoy listening to her stories.

Everything was so different when she was young.

Listening to her was like having history come to life.

I used to try to imagine what life was like for her back then.

If I was 100, and I had grandchildren and great grandchildren, I would tell them stories about my childhood.

I would hope that I had a good memory so that I could remember everything.

If I want to live to be 100, I'll have to live a healthy lifestyle.

Not too many people live to be that old.

If I get to be that old, I hope I'll still be mentally alert and physically agile.

In my country, the Prime Minister sends a letter of congratulations to anyone who has their hundredth birthday.

People who live to be 100 are very special.

Maybe in the future with better medical care and healthier lifestyles, more people will live to be 100.

If I live to be 100, I'll have a birthday cake, but I won't put 100 candles on the cake.

I could never blow out 100 candles.

24. What I Like Most and Least About Myself

I was trying to think up the best and the worst things about myself.

I think the best thing about me is that I am very friendly.

I have a lot of friends, and they all like me. I try to be good to my friends.

I don't often have arguments with people. I think that I am quite easy to get along with.

The worst thing about me is that I sometimes feel sad.

Sometimes I don't feel sad for any particular reason.

I just get into moods where I am depressed.

Sometimes there is a reason to be sad. I was sad when my pet frog died.

I was sad when I lost my favorite baseball card.

On those days, I'm still nice to my friends, but inside I feel like there is a heavy weight in my chest.

I think that everyone feels sadness sometimes.

I try to do things that make me happy whenever I get into one of my sad moods.

Last Saturday, I felt a bit sad so I called up my friend John and asked him if he wanted to go to the movies.

We went to a comedy.

We laughed all the way through the movie, so by the time the movie was over, I didn't feel sad anymore.

My friendliness is my best trait, and my sad moods are my worst traits.

I have to work at getting over my sad moods more quickly.

Being sad doesn't do anyone any good. There is no use in feeling sorry for oneself.

25. The Trunk in the Attic

Last month my grandmother asked me if I could help her to clean out her attic.

I was happy that she asked me. My grandmother says that her attic is full of junk.

I think that her attic is full of treasures. I helped her to dust and vacuum the attic.

I pulled and pushed around boxes and crates. I helped her to wash the floors and walls.

My favorite thing that I did was to sort through the old trunk that she had up there.

The trunk had a rusty latch on it.

It was a bit difficult to open, but my grandmother got a knife and pried the latch open.

The trunk was full of all kinds of things. There were lots of clothes.

Some of the clothes had been my grandmother's.

There was a blue velvet dress that she had worn to a dance when she and my grandfather were dating.

It was a beautiful dress, but there were a few moth holes in it.

There were some of my mother's old clothes.

There was a pair of bell bottom slacks that had bright flowers on it.

I couldn't believe that my mother had ever worn something like that.

There were some of my mother's old report cards.

Some of her marks weren't very good. I had fun reading the report cards. There were photographs.

There was a picture of my grandparents holding my mother when she was a baby.

There was an old baseball glove that one of my uncles had owned.

There was even one of my old dolls in there. One of her legs was missing.

My grandmother said that I was rough with my dolls when I was little.

I should have taken better care of my toys. There was even some old jewellery.

I tried on some of the old clothes and jewellery. I told my grandmother that I liked looking through old things.

My grandmother told me to keep whatever I wanted. She said that it was all junk.I still say that the trunk was full of treasures.

26. Hot and Cold

I notice that whenever it is summer, people complain about the heat, but whenever it is winter, people complain about the cold.

It seems that people are never satisfied. I don't like the winter.

It is usually much too cold for me.

My teeth chatter, and my fingers turn numb whenever the weather gets cold.

It is hard for me to warm up once I start to freeze.

I try to wear layers of clothes, but winter winds go through my clothes no matter how much I wear.

My feet feel like they are blocks of ice on a cold January day when I walk home from school.

I would not like to live in a place that had a cold climate all year long.

I am not comfortable when it is too cold. I like the summer.

Some people say that it is hot and sticky in the summer, but I don't mind the heat at all.

I love to feel the warm sunshine on my skin.

I like the freedom of not having to wear heavy coats and boots.

I am the happiest when there is a slightly cool breeze that comes along to refresh you on a hot summer day.

I could live in a place with a hot climate. I would enjoy that.

Of course, when you are in a place with a hot climate there are more bugs than in places with cooler climates.

I don't care for bugs. Where I live, it is very humid.

The heat and moisture combine to make it uncomfortable sometimes.

It is nicer when the heat is high, but the humidity is low.

It would be better if I lived somewhere where it was hot, but not humid. That would be just perfect.

27. Walk a Mile in My Shoes

Have you ever heard the saying "walk a mile in my shoes?" I think it is a very good saying.

Do you know what it means?

It means that before you judge someone, you should put yourself in his or her position.

For example, if someone was running in a race, and they did very poorly and came in last it wouldn't be fair to say, "oh, he's just a terrible runner." You would have to look at all the circumstances that made the person lose the race.

Maybe they pulled a muscle in their leg the day before; maybe this is their very first race; maybe they are not in good form because something isn't right in their lives.

There can be so many things that affect a person's life, performance and moods.

If someone was very quiet at a party, you couldn't just assume that they weren't friendly.

You don't know what is happening in their lives.

They could be feeling ill, or they might have just had a bad experience.

Nobody can know exactly how another person feels.

Even if someone tells you what he or she is experiencing, you still won't fully understand what is going on inside the other person.

Everyone perceives and feels things differently.

To walk a mile in someone else's shoes is to try and understand things from that person's perspective.

We are all shaped by the events that have taken place in our lives.

No two people have gone through the exact same things.

So, before you are quick to judge someone, stop and think about what it is that they might have gone through.

You won't always understand why people do what they do, but you can try to understand and put yourself in their position.

28. If I Could Go Back in My Life

If I could go back in my life and do some things differently, this is what I would do. I would not waste so many hours in front of the television set.

I would get out and enjoy my own life, rather than watching actors in shows.

I would be a little more considerate of other people.

I would realize that my mother has more to do than pick up after me.

I would pay more attention in school.

Tests are easier when you have paid attention, rather than fooling around in class.

I would save more money rather than spend it on useless things.

I would read more.

Reading is enjoyable, and it opens the doors into all kinds of wonderful places both real and imagined.

I would learn to play an instrument. Music is always appreciated if it is played well.

I would eat better foods. I would try to stay healthy through my diet and exercise.

I would take more pictures, and I would keep a journal. Memories are very precious.

I would take the time to listen to what people have to say.

People appreciate a good listener. I would take the time to enjoy each day as it comes.

Sometimes, I am so busy looking forward to what is coming up that I don't take the time to enjoy the day that I am living in. (böyle şişilir)

That's what I would do if I could go back in my life.

In fact, I think I'll just make a habit of doing all of those things all through my life.

I think I would like to live to be 100.

Joking is good. Jokes can be very funny. Jokes can also be hurtful. Jokes can be tasteless too.

It is not an easy thing to find jokes that do not offend anyone.

Some jokes make fun of different races.

Those jokes are not funny. They are hurtful. It is not right to tell racist jokes.

Many jokes use bad language or are about questionable subject matter.

These jokes are also not acceptable. Many people are highly offended by rude jokes.

What some people find funny, others will not. Comedy is a very personal thing.

Some people like slapstick comedy. That is the kind of comedy that the Three Stooges use.

Some people like very subtle humor. Some people will laugh at just about anything.

Sometimes, it is not appropriate to laugh, but you feel like laughing anyway.

Did you ever see anyone fall down? Did you feel like laughing when they fell down?

You were probably worried that they had hurt themselves, yet the way that they fell was so funny that you felt like laughing.

It's not funny when someone falls, but you can't help but laugh even though you try to hide it.

Jokes and comedy differ from culture to culture.

Many people from other countries come here and don't understand our comedy.

Jokes and comedies are often geared toward our environment.

Sometimes, comedians make fun of the things that we do in our everyday lives like going to the bank, or going grocery shopping.

We can all relate to that. Being a comedian is not an easy job.

Telling jokes and making people laugh is extremely difficult.

Jokes are fun, and they are funny if they are good.

Jokes can get you into a lot of trouble if they are inappropriate, and sometimes they're just not funny and nobody laughs.

Here is a joke. Why does a cow wear a bell? because its horns don't work Do you get it?

Do you think it is funny? Well, maybe it's not that funny. I told you that it was difficult being a comedian.

30. Drugs

There are two different types of drugs. There are legal drugs and illegal drugs.

Legal drugs are the type of drugs that the doctor gives you when you are sick.

Illegal drugs are the drugs that people sell on the street.

Illegal drugs are very dangerous.

If someone ever wants you to try any type of substance that you are not sure about, you should always say no.

People who sell drugs on the street are criminals.

If they get caught, they will be sent to jail. They sell drugs to get money.

They don't care that people's lives are ruined from taking drugs.

If you take illegal drugs, you can become addicted to them.

That means that you just have to have the drug no matter what you need or not.

Some people steal from other people to get money to buy drugs.

Drugs affect your mind. If you take drugs, you will not be able to think clearly.

Your marks in school will drop. Your memory won't be very good.

Your personality won't be the same. It is very unfortunate that some people try drugs.

They think that it won't hurt them. They are wrong.

If you are smart, you will stay away from all drugs, except for the ones that the doctor gives you.

Drugs are just bad news.

If you know someone who is thinking about trying drugs, tell them that their entire life could be ruined.

In America, they had a saying "Just say no to drugs." It is a good saying, but I think I would rather say, "I'm just too smart to take drugs."

Divorce doesn't happen because the parents don't love the children anymore.

A lot of children feel that it is their fault, but it isn't their fault at all.

Children neither cause the divorce, nor can they prevent it.

It is up to the parents. Divorce isn't the end of the world.

Children can still see both parents and stay with them.

Life goes on. Sometimes children can get new stepmothers or stepfathers.

Know that they love you and that this is a hard time for them.

I put some plants at the bottom of the tank, and I got a miniature deep sea diver to put at the bottom of the tank.

I looked into the tank and imagined what my goldfish was saying.

He seemed to be saying. "This is a nice tank.

It's roomy in here, and you decorated it well, but I still don't have any friends to swim with." I went to the pet store and bought three more goldfish.

I put them into the tank. All of the goldfish seemed to look at each other.

They swam near each other and seemed to be playing games.

I knew which one was my goldfish because he has a black spot on his fin.

I looked at him, and imagined that he was talking again. He said. "This is great! I have a big new home and friends to swim with. These are nice goldfish that you brought home for me; thank you."

Goldfish can't really talk. I know that. I just like to pretend that my goldfish talks.

He seems very happy now with his nice new home, and his new friends.

I don't think goldfish can smile either, but it looks like my goldfish has a smile on his face.

33. The Best Teacher

I have had a lot of teachers. Some of them were good, and some of them were boring.

There is one teacher whom I remember very well.

He is the best teacher that I ever had.

His name was Mr. Alban. He was a history teacher.

History is not my favorite subject. I don't really enjoy history a lot.

When I was in Mr. Alban's class, he made history seem exciting.

He was more of an actor than a teacher.

If he was describing a war, he would make us feel all the emotions that the soldiers and their families would have felt.

We could almost hear the guns firing and the people shouting.

He would paint a picture in our minds that was very vivid.

When I had a history test in his class, I didn't have to study much.

I would remember every word that he had said.

I would see him doing the actions that went along with his stories. He was very animated.

He would shout out orders as if he was a general, or he would speak softly and reverently when describing the death of a great hero.

The most important thing that I learned from Mr. Alban was that I did really like history.

I just thought that I didn't like it because most people had made it dull by just reading from the textbooks.

History is not just a series of dates and dull facts.

History is what really happened. History is real life.

All the historical figures had real families and emotions.

They weren't just fictional people. After I took history from Mr. Alban, I realized that I really did have an interest in it.

He was my favorite teacher, and I will always be grateful to him for making me aware of just how interesting history really is.

34. Weather

Sometimes, I watch the weatherman on television.

It is fascinating to watch him point to different areas of the country on the map.

He tells us where the weather will be nice and where it will be bad.

The weatherman is not always right. Weather reporting is not an exact science.

Nothing is very exact when it comes to the weather.

The weather department does a lot of research, but they can never be sure of exactly what will happen.

Sometimes, it looks like it will be clear, but the wind changes direction and clouds move in.

The weatherman can warn people if there is a chance of a hurricane or tornado.

The weatherman can also warn people of floods.

Sometimes, entire towns have to be evacuated because of bad weather.

It is important to be aware of the weather.

For example, it is not good to be caught in the middle of a field when there is going to be a thunderstorm.

You might want to take extra precautions if there is going to be a heavy snowstorm.

You would need to be in a secure place if a hurricane or tornado was predicted.

You might want to cancel a picnic if you knew that it would rain that day.

The weather affects us in so many ways. Some people are really affected by dull, cloudy days.

If there are no sunny days, they become very depressed.

Heavy air pressure can cause some people to have headaches.

Weather affects all of us in one way or another. It is always a topic of conversation.

People often say things like "hello, it's a beautiful day today." Often we plan our lives and activities around the weather.

So, if you are planning on walking home tonight, keep an eye on the sky.

Are those rain clouds up there? You might need an umbrella.

35. How to Avoid Catching a Cold

How many colds do you catch in a year? Most of my friends catch quite a few colds.

They cough, sniffle and sneeze. They carry around tissues and blow their noses all the time.

Their eyes water, and they have scratchy throats. I don't get many colds.

In fact, I can go for a whole year and never catch a cold. That is why I consider myself an expert on how not to catch a cold.

I'll tell you how to avoid catching a cold.

I think that you need to take a lot of vitamin C.

I eat a lot of fruits and vegetables. I drink fruit juice too.

I also take vitamin C pills.

Whenever I begin to feel a cold coming on, I make sure that I have taken my vitamin C pill, and I drink a lot of orange juice.

That usually knocks the cold right out of my system. I make sure that I get a lot of fresh air.

I get outside and breathe in fresh clean air.

If somebody is rude enough to cough or sneeze right in front of me without covering his or her mouth, I just hold my breath for a second.

I'm not sure if this works or not, but I don't want to breathe in anybody's cold germs. Many germs are passed through hands.

It is important to wash your hands thoroughly if you touch anything in a public place.

If I hold a banister while I am walking down the stairs, I think of all the people who have used that banister, and I make sure that I wash my hands before I eat.

Doorknobs also have a lot of germs on them.

Sometimes, I see people stick money into their mouths.

Just think of all the germs that you would be putting into your mouth if you did that. If you just give it a little bit of thought, you can avoid a lot of the germs that cause colds.

If you eat good foods and stay fit, your body will be able to fight off the germs that cause colds and other diseases.

It is not always possible to avoid colds, but if you do catch a cold, drink plenty of fluids and get a lot of rest.

36. The Future

I sometimes wonder what life will be like in the future. Life has changed so much in just the past few years.

I'm sure that there are still big changes that are coming. Do you think we'll still drive cars?

Maybe we'll get into computerized vehicles that we won't have to drive.

We'll just push a few buttons, and the vehicles will take us to wherever we have to go.

Maybe there won't be roads. We might just fly through space to get where we want to go.

Instead of telephones, we'll just use our computers. We'll be able to see each other when we talk.

That type of thing is already happening. Maybe we won't have to cook our meals.

A nice roast beef dinner, or an ice cream sundae, might just pop out of a machine.

It would be nice to have a robot to clean the house for you.

Most of my friends own computers.

If we had all of these things to do the work for us, what would we do?

We would still need people to program the computers.

The future holds many surprises.

I'm sure that technology will become even more and more amazing.

When my parents were young, they had never even seen a color television.

Nobody owned a computer. It doesn't take long for things to change a lot.

Who knows what amazing things are in store for us?

37. Giving a Speech

I had to give a speech last week. I gave a speech to three hundred people.

I had to speak in front of a group of students.

I had to tell them about a campaign that we were having to raise money for cancer research.

Giving a speech can be a difficult thing. When you stand in front of a big crowd, you can get very nervous.

Their heart beats very hard inside of their chest. Their palms get sweaty.

For some people, giving a speech is their worst fear.

When you give a speech, everyone is looking at you.

They are waiting to hear what you have to say.

When you have three hundred people looking at you; you have six hundred eyes that are on you.

It is a little frightening when you think of it that way.

Before I give a speech, I take three big breaths.

I calm myself, and I remind myself that what I have to say is important.

I like to be sure of what I am going to say, so I practice my speech in front of a mirror at home.

I like to look like I am relaxed and friendly.

They say that practice makes it perfect; so the more speeches that you give, the better you will become at it.

Whenever I have to give a speech, I imagine that the audience is just one big person.

I look out into the audience until I find a friendly, smiling face.

I focus on that person, and I pretend that I am just talking to them.

I have become used to giving speeches. I am more relaxed now than I used to be.

People tell me that I do not look nervous at all. I like to hear that.

Sometimes I feel a little flutter of nervousness, but I just ignore it and do the best that I can.

Giving a speech is not as scary as it appears to be. Anyone can do it with a little practice.

38. Moving to Another Country

My friend Steve moved to another country. He had lived in Canada all his life, and he moved to Japan.

Life in Japan was very different for Steve than what he was used to.

At first, Steve suffered from culture shock. His whole life seemed different.

He was not used to the way of life in Japan.

Steve was not used to the large crowds of people that walked up and down the streets in Japan.

In his hometown in Canada, the streets were fairly quiet.

Steve had to get used to the food. In Japan, the people eat a lot of fish.

Steve had never eaten much fish before. Steve wanted pizza, but it was expensive in Japan.

Steve said that he had to adjust his eating habits.

The people in Japan have different customs than we do here in Canada.

Steve didn't want to offend anyone, so he had to learn the customs.

He had to learn about what Japanese people considered polite and rude.

Sometimes, in a foreign country you can do something to insult someone without even realizing that you are being rude.

At first, Steve had trouble with the language.

He said that the only way to really learn the language is to talk to people. Steve talked to a lot of people.

He made a lot of mistakes, but people were patient with him, and they tried to help him with his Japanese.

It wasn't long before Steve felt more comfortable in his new surroundings.

You have to be willing to learn new customs and a new language if you move to another country.

Steve feels very comfortable in Japan, and in Canada now.

He is thinking about going to another country now. He thinks that he might like to try and live in Italy.

I'm sure that he would get over his culture shock very fast if he moved there.

Moving to a new country can be difficult, but if you are willing to learn, it can be a very rewarding experience.

39. Look for the Beauty

I have learned that things don't always go the way that they were planned. (ne söz ama)

If something doesn't happen the way that I want it to, I try to make the best of the situation. I always try to find something good in everything that happens.

Last year, I broke my ankle when I was walking on an icy sidewalk.

At first, I was very upset. I was missing school, and there was a party that I wanted to go to.

I couldn't do very much of anything. My ankle was very sore. I stayed home, and I read a book.

It was an excellent book, and one that I probably would not have had time to read under normal circumstances (N.Ş.A ☺!).

My friends brought my homework to my house, and we had some really nice visits while they were here.

I had to accept the fact that I couldn't go anywhere on my broken ankle, so I made the best of a bad situation.

Once, I lost my way when I was out camping. I ended up in a very large field.

I was afraid that nobody would find me, but I calmed myself down and took time to examine all the interesting wildflowers in the field. My family did find me. They were surprised at how calm I was.

I have learned that there is something valuable inside every adventure and something beautiful inside every person.(helal)

We had a new boy who came into our class.

His clothes weren't in style, and he was not particularly handsome.

Some of the boys and girls made fun of him. Sometimes, people can be really cruel.

He seemed to handle it all right, but inside, I knew that it must hurt.

Some of my friends and I invited him out with us.

We found out that he had a terrific sense of humor, and he is probably one of the nicest people that I have ever met.He has since become one of my best friends.

It makes me ashamed when someone that I know judges someone by how they look.It isn't fair to do that. You'll find that something good comes out of almost every situation.

You'll find something good about almost everyone that you meet if you look hard enough. If something doesn't work out the way you planned it, just make the best of the situation. Look for the beauty in everything.

40. My Doll

When I was an infant, I got a rag doll. It was a very plain, little doll, and it wore a clown outfit and a clown's hat.

I used to take that doll to bed with me every night. I couldn't go to bed without my doll.

My mother used to pretend that the doll was talking to me.

She would make the doll dance and sing songs. I would talk to the doll.

My mother would answer for the doll, but I was a baby, and I thought that the doll was actually talking to me.

That doll was my best friend. I took her everywhere.

One time I took her to a store with me, and I left her on a shelf in the store.

We were halfway home when I realized that I didn't have my doll with me.

I was very upset. My mother and I rushed back to the store.

My doll was still there. I was so relieved.

I hugged my doll, and I promised myself that I would never leave her anywhere again.

I couldn't imagine life without that doll.

Through the years, the doll became less important in my life.

I had other things to do, but the doll still sat on my bed during the day, and I still took it to bed at night.

I gave that doll a lot of love when I was little.

In fact, I loved the doll so much that she looks tattered and torn now.

There are parts of her face and hands that are almost worn away.

I had a lot of other toys when I was little, but none of them were ever so important as that doll.

I don't play with toys anymore, but that doll is still in my room.

She sits in a special chair in the corner. I'll always have that doll.

No matter how worn out she is, I'll always keep her and cherish her as a part of my early childhood.

How do caterpillars turn into butterflies? All of these things are mysteries to me.

There are so many questions that are unanswered.

I think I should go to the library and get a book to find out why people grow old.

Who is the strongest person in the world? Who is the smartest person in the world?

Why did the dinosaurs vanish from the earth?

I wonder if I'll ever find out the answers to all my questions.

I think I'll have to study hard and stay in school to find out everything that I want to know.

Some questions never get answered. It is good to be curious.

42 Creative People

Some people are just born to create. That's what I think.

Some people just have the need to write stories, compose beautiful music, or paint pictures.

Creativity seems to be inside them, and they need to let it out.

It's good that we have people like that.

Composers like Mozart and Chopin have given us music that is incredibly beautiful.

It's not only the classical composers who have given us great pieces of music but also there are modern composers who have written great songs also. (ıhı ıhı Kayseri ☺!)

Elton John is an example of someone who has composed many wonderful songs.

Andrew Lloyd Webber has given us some very popular musicals like Cats and The Phantom of the Opera.

There are so many talented and creative people in this world.

When you visit an art gallery, you marvel at how artists are able to recreate realism or make up something that seems totally unreal yet beautiful.

The American artist Norman Rockwell painted some pictures that actually looked like photographs.

He tried to portray life as it was in America.

Through his paintings, one can get a good sense of American life through the years.

On the other hand, artists like Jackson Pollock did not portray realism. Jackson Pollock painted abstract pictures.

His paintings are just as good as Norman Rockwell's, but they are entirely different. Some books that we read are classics.

Mark Twain portrayed American life through his characters Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn.

Charles Dickens brought Victorian England to life through his books.

Most people are familiar with his Christmas Carol where the mean and miserable Scrooge learns the true meaning of Christmas. People don't have to read the classics.

There are modern writers who entertain readers through their stories. Stephen King has written a number of horror stories. Some of his books have even been made into movies.

We are lucky to have creative people who share their gifts with us.

If you are lucky enough to be creative, you should use your talents to create works of art that we all can share.

44. I Need Glasses

I have been having trouble seeing the blackboard.

Everything is blurry. I keep getting headaches.

I told my mother about it, and she made an appointment with the optometrist.

I went to a place where they made me read words and letters on a chart.

Some of the words were big, and some were very small.

I tried to read everything, but sometimes I couldn't see some of the small letters.

The optometrist would cover one of my eyes while I read the chart. Then, she would cover my other eye.

She even put some drops in my eyes. I asked the optometrist if I had passed or failed the test.

She laughed, and said that it wasn't the kind of test that you passed or failed.

She was just trying to find out if I needed glasses.

I did need glasses. My mother and I looked around.

There were many pairs of frames. I wanted something that was in style.

I tried on many pairs of frames.

Some of them looked good on me, and some of them looked really funny on me.

I finally chose a frame that was my favorite.

I gave them to a lady who did some measurements.

She told me to come back on Friday to get my glasses.

On Friday, I got my glasses. My friends liked them. They said I looked smart in my glasses.

I wore them to school on Monday, and I was able to see the blackboard clearly.

I didn't realize how much I hadn't been able to see. Now I don't get headaches anymore.

I'm glad that I have my glasses. Everything is a lot clearer now.

45. I am Clumsy

My mother says that I am clumsy. My father says that I am clumsy.

I know that I am clumsy. I do things all the time that are clumsy.

I fall down for no reason at all.

If there is a crack in the sidewalk, I will be sure to trip on it and fall down.

If I carry a plate of food in the cafeteria, I almost always either drop it or bump into someone with it.

I don't try to do these things, it just happens.

When I drink juice, I miss my mouth and get juice all over my shirt.

I always have something spilled on my clothes. Last week I opened a jar of peanut butter.

The jar flew out of my hands and landed upside down on the floor.

There was a big glob of peanut butter on the floor.

Yesterday I knocked over the sugar bowl. There was a big sticky mess on the floor.

I bump my head when I get into the car. I rip my pants on things.

I lose my money out of my pockets. I step on the cat's tail. (yuh artık ☺!)

I always feel bad when I do that because the cat thinks I don't love her.

I don't mean to do these things. I am just a clumsy person.

My parents tell me to slow down. I am always in a hurry; maybe that's why I'm so clumsy.

Maybe it's just a stage that I am going through. If it is, I hope it is over soon. Being clumsy is no fun at all

46. Home Alone

I remember the first time that my parents left me home alone.

I was very grown up, and I thought that I would be just fine.

I was fine for a while. I watched television and had something to eat.

I called my friend on the phone, and we talked for a while.

Then, I sat down to read a book. The house was quiet, very quiet.

I found myself listening very carefully. I heard a tap, tap tapping noise.

I wondered where it was coming from. It seemed to be coming from the window.

I turned out the lights so that nobody would see me, and I peeked out the window carefully.

I was expecting to see a robber tapping at my window. There was nobody there.

It was just a tree branch swaying in the breeze and tapping at my window. I felt silly.

I turned on the lights and sat back down to read my book.

A few minutes later, I heard some creaking noises.

I listened carefully. Then, I heard a clunking noise.

I think it might have been the furnace. Then there was a whirring noise.

My imagination began to play tricks on me.

I was imagining that there were all kinds of creatures in the house.

I told myself to grow up. I wouldn't let my imagination run away with me.

I was glad when my parents got home. I told them about all the noises that I had heard.

My parents laughed and said that all houses make noises.

We're usually just so busy that we don't hear all the noises that go on.

I have stayed home alone many times now. I just ignore all the little creaks and noises that I hear.

I am still alert and listen for anything suspicious, but I know that there are lots of noises that are harmless.

That tree that taps on my window still frightens me sometimes, but I'm a lot braver now than I was the first time that I stayed home alone.

47. Family

What does the word "family" mean to you?

The easiest way to define family is to talk about who you are related to.

Usually, there is a mom and a dad and children who are brothers and sisters.

This would be the "core" family.

Then there is the "extended" family which would include grandparents, aunts and uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews and in laws (people married to your bothers or sisters, husband or wife).

However, I think the word "family" has a much deeper meaning.

The word "family" brings words to my mind like. love, support, help, kindness, fun, love, trips, closeness, love, forgiving, sharing, love, understanding, respect and love!

You'll notice one word that is repeated over and over again. LOVE.

I believe if a family has real love for one another, they will be able to overcome any problems they may have.

Actually, they may not have too many problems if they all love and respect one another.

However, there are things that cannot be helped; like death, sickness or accidents.

It is during those hard times that a family's love helps them to go through those experiences.

We had quite a few children in my family.

There were brothers and sisters which included an adopted brother and a number of foster children, too.

I was also very fortunate that I had both my mom and dad to live with and do things like vacations together.

We had a lot of fun and there were some times of tears, too.

Above all, we love one another! Family is a wonderful thing! I am so lucky!

48 My First Job

My first "real" job was during my last year of high school.

I had taken classes in various business subjects.

In that last year of high school, we could do a "co op".

That meant we could work part of the time instead of going to school.

It would count as a credit towards our diploma.

The place I got a job was at a men's tailor shop.

The owners were a very nice older German couple.

They had two other men working for them, too.

One of the men had had brain surgery for cancer.

He had a big, long scar all around the top of his head.

He told me all about it. He was always happy and full of fun.

I thought he was very brave! The tailor shop made suits to order.

One of the salesmen would measure the man, and the customer would choose a fabric and style he (or his wife!) liked.

The people in the back of the shop would then cut and sew the suit.

The suits cost a lot of money.

There were also suits already made that the customer could buy instead if they wished.

They could also rent suits or tuxedos for weddings or parties.

I worked at a little desk.

I answered the phone, wrote letters, filed papers and did some bookkeeping.

It was about a mile walk from my school to work. I passed many clothing shops.

That wasn't good because I spent a lot of the money that I earned in those shops!

I worked at the tailor shop for almost a year.

It was a good experience and helped me get my next job with the United States Navy.

That was fun, too!

49 First Trip Away From Home

Today I am going to my friend's house. Her name is Valerie.

This is going to be my first trip away from home, without my parents.

My dad is driving me to Valerie's house, and I'll be staying there for two weeks.

Her mom will drive me back home. It takes about l l/2 hours to get there.

I have to pack enough clothes for play, work and church.

I hope I'll pack the right things. Of course, I have to remember my toothbrush and hairbrush.

Valerie lives on a farm. I'll be helping her dad with milking the cows I think!

We'll play up in the hayloft after we have helped put the bales into the barn.

We'll be all itchy when that job is done!

There are a lot of things to do on a farm.

Her mom is a good cook and will feed us well!

There is a nice pond where we can go swimming.

I mustn't forget my bathing suit. I wonder if the farm dog comes into the pond, too.

That would be funny! My dad and mom are giving me money just in case we go shopping.

I hope we go shopping because I want to buy lots of candy.

(I won't tell my mom that!) Oh, dear!

I hear Dad yelling, "Let's go!" I haven't even finished packing my things yet.

I guess I better stop writing this now and get busy fast! Bye!

50. My Job

I work at a conservation park called Ball's Falls.

I've only worked there for three weeks now.

I am a Tour Guide, and I tell people the history of all the old buildings there.

Somebody told me that one of the houses I work in is haunted.

Now I get chills every time I walk into that house!

My boss told me that the stories aren't real, but I have an active imagination!

Ball's Falls is very beautiful.

It has two different water falls, the Upper Falls and the Lower Falls.

There used to be tons of water cascading over them, which turned a big water wheel to grind grain.

However, through the years the amount of water has really lessened.

I love working at Ball's Falls because I get to work outside a lot. I am getting a tan!

In July and August, I will be working with kids there at a day camp.

I am getting ready now, making different crafts and thinking up fun new games to play.

I can't wait to start working with them. I think that will be the best part of the summer.

I will be going to work again tomorrow. I usually have to work from 9 a.m. to 4.30 p.m.

I also like the people I work with. They are very nice. Come to Ball's Falls, and I'll give you a tour!

51. My Hobby

Let's see. Today I might go fly a kite, or maybe go for a swim. It is hot outside, and I don't know what to do. My mom tells me that I should do something that I like doing on hot days. Since our house is nice and cool, I guess I'll stay inside and work on my hobby. My hobby is something that not a lot of people do. I make and collect bookmarks. To make my bookmarks, I use stickers, and special art pencils to draw. I buy the stickers at a mall, usually in a card store. The art pencils are bought in an art store. To make the bookmarks, I start with a piece of paper. I measure out how big I want the bookmark to be with a ruler. I once made a bookmark so big that it couldn't even be used in a very big book! After I measure it, I draw lines so that I can cut it straight. Sometimes, I use fancy scissors that cut zig zags or frills. Then I start to decorate them. I like to draw cartoons and flowers on my bookmarks. Sometimes, I even put real flowers on them. A lot of the time I write little sayings on the bookmarks. I like to give my bookmarks to friends and family. Sometimes, I even sell my bookmarks to people. I like my hobby. I can draw whatever I want on the bookmarks. Maybe sometime in the future I will be a famous bookmark maker and even have my own store!

52. If I Had a Million Dollars, (You wouldn't be writing this ☺!)

If I had a million dollars, I'd travel the world. I would go to the highest mountain. I would swim the deepest sea. I would probably buy a lot of clothes because I love clothes! More than anything though, I would want to visit Ireland. I want to see the rolling hills and the green, green grass that everyone talks about. When I think of Ireland, I think of where my family came from many years ago. I am almost all Irish and would love to see my family over in Ireland. If I had a million dollars, I would buy a Mustang or a Pontiac Sunbird car. I would buy a nice house with a big backyard and an outdoor and indoor pool. I would love to take my family wherever they wanted to go. I would buy them wonderful presents, too. However, I know that money does not buy happiness. It does not buy you friends or family. It may bring some happiness only for the moment, but in the long run your family is what will be there for you if you love them and are there for them. If I had to pick between a million dollars and my family, I would pick my family. (tabi tabi) The million dollars is a nice dream. If that dream ever comes true and I do get a lot of money, I hope I would use it wisely.

53. A Picnic

What a great day for a picnic! We're not only having a picnic; we're having a big bike ride, too. We did this last year with a lot of friends also. It was really fun. We meet quite early in the morning in a pretty little town. The town is where the Niagara River flows into Lake Ontario in Canada. The town's name is Niagara on the Lake. Then all of the people, fifty or more, get on their bikes or roller blades. We go on a bike path beside the river. The path we take is about 11 km or 6 miles long. There are a lot of other people using the path, too. We usually stop for an ice cream treat near the end or where we turn around to go back to our cars. It is just before the park where we will have our picnic, and a steep hill. Many of the men and boys go up the hill. Most of the women and children go back to their cars. The ride takes about two hours plus whatever time we take at the ice cream store. After the ride is finished, we go the park. We have a delicious "pot luck" lunch. (Allah ne verdiyse artık ☺!) Pot luck means everyone brings some food to share with the others. We eat, rest, talk and laugh. After we've cleaned up, some of us climb the tower that is there remembering a war at that place and its general. It is a steep climb, over l00 steps. We usually end the day with a fun game of baseball or soccer. Finally, we pack up our stuff. Tired and dirty, we head for home with good memories swimming in our heads.

54. Working in my Yard

I live in a house that has a small yard around it. In my yard there is a lawn and a garden. There is also a sidewalk that leads to my front door, and a driveway that leads to my garage. Throughout the year I work to maintain my yard. During the summer, I cut the grass that grows in my yard by using a lawn mower. I like the smell of the grass when it has just been cut. But it's better not to cut the grass too short. When the weather is dry, I also put water on the lawn and garden so that the grass and flowers can grow. During the autumn, many leaves fall from the trees in my yard. I use a rake to collect the leaves from the lawn. Then I can put the leaves into bags. I can use the leaves to make fertilizer. When I was a kid, I didn't like the job of raking leaves, but now I don't mind it. Another job during the autumn is to remove flowers from the garden before the cold weather arrives. During the winter, there is no work to do in the lawn or garden because they are covered in snow. But I need to keep the snow off my sidewalk and driveway. Whenever it snows, I use a shovel to clear the snow from the sidewalk and the driveway. Sometimes it snows a lot. If I didn't shovel the snow, it would soon be impossible to get into my house! During the spring, the snow melts. I clean up my yard by sweeping away dirt and by removing weeds from the lawn and garden. I also put flowers back into the garden. It's nice to see them again after the long, cold winter. When spring comes, the grass grows very quickly, so I need to cut the grass quite often. Working in the yard can be very satisfying work. It's so nice when the lawn and garden are looking green and healthy.

55. Early Morning

"Yawn! " I am so tired. I don't like getting up in the morning. I wish I could sleep in until noon. My mom has to come into my room and shake my feet. “Get up, you lazy girl!" she says, "It's time to rise and shine (yeter zıbardığın ☺!). It's a beautiful day!" I raise my head, mumble and turn over, putting my pillow over my head. My mom yanks my pillow from off my head and starts tickling me.”Okay, I'll get up!" I shriek. The sun is so bright that I squint. I think I will go outside and play. I can't wait to get up now. My mom cooks me breakfast. I have eggs, bacon, toast and orange juice. When I finish my breakfast,I brush my teeth, comb my hair, wash my face and then change into play clothes. I choose a bright pink and yellow tank top with jean shorts and blue sandals. My bike is in the garage where my dad keeps the cars and tools. As I pedal, my hair flies out behind me! I keep my mouth shut so that bugs don't get in! (aman ha ☺!) I am going down a big hill now. I can hardly pedal anymore. My legs are moving so fast. I hang onto my handle bars tightly. I don't want to fall off! I finally am able to slow down as the road becomes level. I turn a corner and decide to go back home. I realize I now have to ride up the hill! I know I will be tired when I get to the top. I think that I will have some water now before I start to go up. Mmmm, it tastes great! It is so clean and cold. Well, I know that I have a big trip ahead of me, so I need to get going! Bye bye!

56. The Wedding

We went into the church and sat down. There were pretty flowers at the front. There was beautiful organ music playing. The church was full of people dressed up nicely. Everyone was waiting to see the beautiful bride walk up the aisle. A hush, and intake of breath. There she was! Oh, she was so beautiful (heh hep öyledir zaten)! She had a lovely, long white dress with pretty lace and beads. Her hair was swept up off from her face. There were curls flowing down her back. Instead of a veil, she had little flowers in her hair. Her bouquet of tiny flowers was very, very pretty. Her dad looked very proud of her. He looked just a little sad, too. At the front of the church, the groom stood waiting. (garip groom ☺!) He had a beautiful tender smile on his face. He took his bride's hand as her dad left her there. They smiled at each other. The minister read, prayed and offered some words of advice to the lovely couple. Someone sang a pretty song. The groom slipped the simple wedding band on the bride's finger. She struggled a little to put a band on his finger. Pretty soon the minister said they were now husband and wife. They kissed. We all stood, and they walked down the aisle to live the rest of their lives together as Mr. And Mrs.! We cried.

57. The Perfect Place

There is a place in my mind that is pure. Everything there is beautiful. Many flowers grow, and the grass is very green. The clouds are always white and fluffy. The tree's branches sweep the earth floor. You can hear the sound of a waterfall. It is roaring with life, and the water races. A bird calls in the distance and as you listen, the sound gets closer. A flapping quite near makes me turn and look. A great, magnificent eagle flies over my head. The strength I see in his powerful wings amazes me! I am never thirsty or hungry. I live off the beauty that surrounds me in this perfect place. I walk on trails that lead me to breathtaking places. The beach is my favourite spot to end up. The sand between my toes is soft and cool. I love to lie down on the sand. I watch the sun go down. Sometimes the sun is a brilliant orange. The world seems like it is on fire! Waves lull me to sleep. The seagulls wake me up. In this perfect place I have learned so much. The animals and their homes are so precious. I have learned to respect the animals; they were here first. The sounds, smells, and sights are too perfect and full of life. There is no war here, no anger or stress. I don't have to worry about pollution or destruction. My perfect world exists only in my head. Maybe if we all work hard, my fantasy can become real!

58. Visiting the Zoo

When I was a kid, I always enjoyed visiting the zoo. My family lived far away from the zoo, so we didn't go there very often. But whenever we went to the zoo, I always had a fun and interesting time. Some of the animals were very large. Of course, the elephants were huge, and they had such an unusual appearance, with their big ears and their long trunk and tusks. The giraffes were very tall, with long necks that reached high into the trees. Some of my favorite animals were the big cats. The lions looked very powerful, with their big teeth and paws. The tigers were just as big and strong with yellow and black stripes. But the bears were even larger than these cats. The polar bears, with their bright white fur, liked to swim through the water. The grizzly bears had brown fur and liked to roam around on land. The animals from Australia seemed very unusual. The kangaroos, with their strong legs and long tail, could jump great distances across the ground. The baby kangaroo could go inside its mother's pouch. Another Australian animal, the koala bear, crawled slowly in the trees, where it ate leaves. The monkeys and apes were also very interesting. In many ways, they reminded me of people. Some of the monkeys were very small. They could use their arms, legs, and tail to swing through the trees. Some of the apes were very large. The gorilla was the largest of all. Sometimes a big gorilla would stand up and pound his fists on his chest. To see all the animals at the zoo took almost a whole day. By the end of the day, I was very tired from walking around. But I was also very happy to see all the amazing animals from places around the world.

59. The Dentist Appointment

My dentist called my house the other day. He told me I needed my teeth cleaned. I set up an appointment to see him on Saturday, June l0th. When I got to my dentist's office, I had to sit in the waiting room. There were other people ahead of me. They finally called my name. I went into his room and sat down on a big blue chair. They leaned it back. A bright light was turned on. It hurt my eyes, so I closed them. My dentist asked me to open my mouth. I did. I thought my mouth was very big, but he told me to open it even wider! Soon he began poking around to see if I had any cavities. He flossed my teeth and put fluoride around my teeth too. The fluoride tasted like bubble gum. I had to spit into a dish like bowl. It squirted out water. My dentist kept asking me questions. I couldn't answer because there were weird tools in my mouth! When I tried answering back, he seemed to understand though. His helper came into the room. She asked me to open my mouth again. I had to clamp down on something that felt like rubber. She put a big camera type machine right next to my cheek. She did this on the other side of my face as well. They took two pictures of my teeth. It was really cool. The dentist told me my teeth were perfect! I didn't have any problems. I could go home."See you next year," he said.

61. My Friend in the Next Office

Sometimes she asks my advice now about her work or about a problem and I ask her advice. Sometimes she comes in to my office and says " I'm really angry, can I whine to you?" Then she talks about a problem and I listen, and then she returns cheerfully to her office. Sometimes I go into her office and say." I'm upset about something that happened; can I come in for a minute?" Then I grumble to her and she listens, and then I go back cheerfully to my office. Each of us feels better when we have shared our problems. Then they are no longer problems. My Friend In the Next Office When I started my job a year ago at the university, I did not know my way around. I did not know where to find anything. I had a million questions. But Dianne in the next office took me on a tour showing me the places to eat, the library, the lecture rooms, where to get a picture ID card, how to get from one building to another. When I had a question I asked Dianne. how to use the telephone, where to make copies, where to print with my computer, the location of my mailbox. She teaches as I do. We both spend a lot of time helping students and answering their questions. She giggles a lot; I hear her laugh with her students. Dianne is shy in a group of people. She is quiet and does not start a conversation. Everyone around her talks and she listens. On Friday afternoons, she makes popcorn for everyone. We all sit in the staff room and eat microwaved popcorn and drink tea and talk. We start to relax for the weekend and talk about our plans. She is a good friend; she helps my students when I am not there; she wishes me good luck when I go to a lecture. I am very glad that she can be my friend in the office beside mine.

62. The Musician

There once was a little girl named Rain Angel. She loved to sit at the piano and play. Rain Angel was a very gifted girl. She had a voice that gave people shivers, and she loved to sing! As Rain got older, she continued to love music. Rain became involved in the choirs and bands at her high school. She loved performing in front of people. She couldn't help but feel the sense of power she had when she was up on stage, and there was always loud clapping when she finished a song. Rain soon went out on her own and looked for someone that could help her become famous. Rain wanted to share her talent with the world. She felt that her special talent for music helped people feel good. Rain went out into the big world, and she did very well. She was always performing her best, and someone finally noticed her. Her new agent helped her to make her first album. Rain became famous because she never quit trying. Rain loved her new way of life. She continued singing and playing her piano. She was even taught how to write her own music! Rain Angel had always dreamed of becoming a celebrity. She always remembered her friends and family when she was famous because they had always believed in her. Rain Angel strove for a faraway place, and it became her reality. She always believed that what she wanted to become was her choice. She believed that if you have the strength and determination you can make your dreams come true.

63. The Circus

Wow! A big tent was in the middle of the town's parking lot! We were going to a three ring circus. I couldn't wait for it to begin. Inside and outside of the tent, toys, balloons and food were being sold. All of the children were so very excited. Inside the tent, we found good seats, so we could see everything. The band started to play loud music, and the ringmaster came out with a big tall hat on his head. In one ring, there were small animals, dogs, monkeys and parrots doing tricks. The dogs were dressed in funny clothes, and so were the monkeys. They rode on bicycles, danced and climbed ladders. There were wild tigers and lions in a big round wire cage. A man with a whip was inside the cage with them. He had them trained to jump through a hoop of fire and to roll over. He even kissed them! He was very brave! During the break in the middle of the circus, funny clowns came out and did silly things. They had happy faces and sad faces. Some had big red noses that honked if you squeezed them. There were rides on big elephants too. I didn't go on one because it cost too much money. The last act took up the whole tent. It was acrobats. They hung from their teeth, their feet and their necks high up in the air! They also swung high up in the air and "flew" to each other. It's kind of scary to watch because I was afraid they might fall. I had a very good time at the circus. However, my tummy felt kind of sick from all the cotton candy and junk food I ate

64. Going to the Grocery Store

Each week I go to the grocery store to buy food for my family. I get a shopping cart from the front of the store, and I push the cart all around the store. The cart is large, but when I am finished shopping, the cart is nearly full! The grocery store is also called a supermarket. When I go shopping, I start out in the produce section of the supermarket. The produce section is where the fresh fruits and vegetables are kept. I like to buy different kinds of fruit, such as apples, oranges, and bananas. The vegetables that I often buy are carrots, peas, and corn. I also buy tomatoes when they are bright red in color. I often buy a bag of potatoes or a bag of rice. After visiting the produce section, I go to the meat section. Here I buy poultry, such as chicken and turkey. I often buy seafood, especially fish. I also buy beef, and sometimes pork or lamb. I also visit the dairy section, where I can buy milk and cheese. Sometimes I also buy ice cream or yogurt. When I have finished in the meat and dairy sections, I then move to the bakery section. This is where loaves of bread are baked and sold. There are many different kinds of bread in the bakery section. The bakery section also sells pasta, such as macaroni and spaghetti. And, of course, you can buy pies, cakes, and cookies in the bakery section. These foods are very sweet and tasty! I also pick up a few other things at the supermarket, such as soap, toothpaste, and cleaning supplies. But sometimes I forget to buy something that I had planned to get. Maybe I should make a list of the things I need to buy!

65. A Day at the Beach

When the hot summer weather arrives, many people like to cool off by visiting the beach. Often, there is a cool breeze that comes off the water. And, of course, the water itself is cool and refreshing. One of the favourite activities at the beach is building sandcastles. Children use small shovels and pails to move the sand. They can build small forts and castles by carefully forming and shaping the sand. Building sandcastles is a lot of fun, but you shouldn't build them too close to the water. a wave might come and wash your sandcastle away! There are also many games that people like to play at the beach. Some people play catch with a small plastic disc called a Frisbee. The Frisbee glides smoothly through the air. Other people like to play beach volleyball in the soft sand. Some people prefer just to relax on the beach. They like to lie down on a blanket and feel the warm sunshine. I like to sit on the beach with an ice cream cone. But you have to eat it quickly, before it melts. Of course, the main attraction of a beach is the water. Many children learn to swim at the beach, and enjoy playing in the water. Some people like to swim vigorously. Other people like to relax in the water on an inflatable, floating mattress. Other people just wade around in the water, as a way to keep cool. When it is a windy day, some people try sports such as surfing. Going to the beach is surely one of the best ways to spend a summer day!

66. Making Cookies

Ummmm. Something smells good! My friend's mom is making cookies. They are chocolate chip, my favourite! I think I'll go home and ask my mom if we can make cookies, too. I run all the way home and rush through the door. I yell, "Mom, Mom!" She comes out from her bedroom, her eyes wide."What?" she answers, a little worried. I breathlessly ask if we can please, pretty please, make cookies. She smiles and says, "I guess so." "YES!" I reply. First mom tells me to get out the cooking stuff; so I get out the mixer and bowl, the measuring cups and spoons and the cookie sheets. Then she tells me to get out the recipe book. I remind her that the recipe is on the chocolate chip package. "Right," she says. Then she asks me to look at the recipe and get out the things we need. like flour, sugar and butter. We set the oven temperature to 350 degrees F. Then, we mix all of the flour and other stuff (ingredients) together. Last, we add the chocolate chips. We drop the butter by big teaspoons full onto the cookie sheets. We set the timer for 12 minutes and just sit back and enjoy the good smell! The buzzer rings. We take the cookies out. Oh, do they look good! We don't even wait for them to cool down. Both Mom and I get a big glass of cold milk and two big warm cookies each. Yum! Yum! Want to join us?

67. Stars in the Midnight Sky

"Twinkle, twinkle, little star, how I wonder what you are; up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky, twinkle, twinkle little star." This is a little poem/song I always say when I am outside, and I see the stars. When I see the first star of the night, I sometimes say this one. "Star light, star bright, first star I see tonight; I wish I may; I wish I might, have the wish I wish tonight." Do you have a special thing to say about the stars? Stars are beautiful bright spots in the sky. Stars are usually seen at night when it is dark. We can't see them in the day time because the sun is so bright, the brightest star of all. I like staying up late just to look at the stars. One time I was outside at midnight, and the stars seemed to sparkle and dance. They really did look like diamonds dancing in the sky! If you watch the stars long enough, you may see a falling star or a shooting star. I have seen both. A falling star is where the star just seems to drop, and it leaves a trail of what appears like star dust. A shooting star is very beautiful. It "shoots" across the sky leaving a long trail of colourful "star dust." Shooting stars seem to brighten up the whole sky. They usually seem quite close to the earth. Have you ever watched the stars and got the urge to reach out and touch them, or even to join them in their secret dance? I wonder what it would be like to see a star up close. Would it look like the moon? Maybe one day when I am older, I will go up in a rocket ship and visit the dancing stars in the midnight sky!

68. Music

A song comes on the radio. My lips start to move, singing along. My fingers start to snap; my feet begin to tap. The music sinks deep into my soul. I listen to the music as it fills my brain, and I remember when I used to sing. I sang in front of huge crowds. I loved it when they watched me and clapped for me when I was finished. Letting out my feelings when I was sad, mad, happy, or glad was when I would sing. I sang in the shower; I sang in the rain; I sang in church; I sang walking down the street! Music has always been a big part of my life. It seems like I was a baby when I started playing the piano! I would sit on my sister's lap while she played the piano, and I would bang on the keys. I remember sitting beside her and learning how to sing. I sang my little lungs out! As I grew, I listened to other singers on tapes, the radio and Cds. I took those things that I heard from different singers and made myself sound like them. Soon, I could take what I had heard all my life and make it into my own sound. I have always liked singing jazz and blues. I don't listen to jazz and blues a lot, however. I listen to pop, rock, classical and some country. As you can see, I like many types of music. I have seen musicals, too, like Phantom of the Opera and Les Miserables. Those musicals were amazing. There were such bright costumes and stage sets, not to mention the wonderful songs and singing. Music has been on this earth since the beginning of time, and it touches every one in a different way. I know it has not only touched me, but is a big part of my very being!

69. First Data

"Ring, ring." The phone is ringing. My mother answers it."Hello," she says. It is for me. When I pick up the phone, I hear a boy's voice. It is a boy I go to school with. This boy is very nice, and he is cute, too. He asks me if I want to go out for dinner with him tonight. I say yes. He is going to pick me up at 5.30 p.m. in the evening. He has a nice red car. Before he picks me up, I have to find an outfit to wear. I am nervous and don't know what to wear. So my sister picks out an outfit for me. I feel excited and have the sensation of butterflies in my stomach. The inside of my hands are damp, too. I put on my outfit and do my hair. My sister gives me some nice clips to put in my hair."Ding dong," the doorbell buzzes. My date is here! I hurry to the door so that I can greet him. He tells me that I look nice and that we are going to a place called M T Bellies. When we arrive at M T Bellies, there is loud music playing. A smiling waitress comes who serves us our food. I order a large caesar salad. My date orders steak. When it arrives, the food looks and is delicious! The waitress asks us if we want dessert after we've finished. But we are too full (şiştik☺!). So we ask for our bill to pay. My date pays for the meal. I brought money just in case we would share the cost. When we leave the restaurant, we go for a walk by the river. It is a beautiful night. I am enjoying my first date. I am laughing and having fun. It is time for us to go home. So my date takes me home. I smile and thank him for the great time. I hope he'll ask me out again!

70. University

It's time to sign up for school. This year Natalie is going to Brock University. She has never been to university before. She is a little bit scared. She hopes she meets nice, new friends. Natalie stood in line to get her picture taken. The picture was put on a card. The card was her picture ID (identification). She would use this card if she needed to buy books from the school bookstore; if she wanted to get a book from the library; or if she wanted to use the pool! After all of the signing up and money was paid, Natalie went out to lunch with her mother. ”Mom, I'm kind of scared about going to school. I'm going to be the youngest kid there. I don't know how to take notes. The teachers might be mean..”, Natalie rambled on. Her mom just calmed her down and said, "Take one day at a time, Natalie. Worry only about today.” "Hmmm. You're right, Mom. Thanks! " Natalie was very scared on the first day of school. She made sure she had all of the books she needed and lots of pens, pencils and erasers. She walked into the front of the building and went on her way to try and find her classroom. Natalie got through her classes and met a lot of new people, nice people. Her classes seemed to go by really fast, and the day went by even faster. When Natalie got home she was so excited. She told her mom that classes weren't all that scary; the students and the teachers weren't scary either! Natalie knew that the school work would be hard, but she felt good about the people she had met that day. She knew she'd have a good year.

72. Health

Our health is very important to us. People can have good jobs, money or good looks. However, if they become sick, those things don't mean a thing. It is wonderful to feel good. Feeling good isn't just about our body. It is also about our mind and spirit. We need to feel good in every area of our life. One of the things we can do to be healthy is to get enough sleep. If we don't sleep well, or enough, it hurts our body. It is during sleep that our body restores itself. Everybody knows we should also eat good foods. We need milk products, meats, fruits and vegetables and breads and cereals. We shouldn't eat too much fat or sugar things either. Of course, we just shouldn't eat too much at all! Another thing that is very important is water. Most people know our bodies are mainly water, and we need to keep that replaced with good water often! Exercise is very good for both our body and mind. It is good for our heart, lungs, muscles and bones. It gets oxygen to our brain to help us think better. It can help us be smarter! Doing things that we believe are right and good gives us peace inside. (eee hadi görek) It makes us be nicer people and is good for our spirit. When we do what we know is right, it helps to reduce stress, which isn't good for any part of us. (aha) When we take care of our body, mind, and spirit, we feel good all over and inside, too! What a beautiful world this would be if we could all work at doing these things for ourselves and also trying to be a help to others!

73. Halloween

Ghosts, goblins, witches, princes and princesses, kings, queens, skeletons! So many of these "things" are walking down my street." Oh, no! They are coming to my door! " The doorbell chimes, and I slowly open the door. There standing on my front porch, is a little ghost and a cute little witch. They hold up a bag and say, "trick or treat." I put candy into their bags and they smile and say, "Thank you." Every October 31 is Halloween. That is when children dress up as different things (not just funny people, but things like animals or fruits or vegetables, etc). They go from door to door and get different candies or little toys from the people in the houses. Some children, who are not very nice, will do naughty things to houses where people are not home, like throwing eggs at their windows. I think that is bad. Sometimes people decorate their houses for this day. Some of the houses can be pretty scary. They'll have scary noises coming from a tape recorder, too. However, it's only for a few days out of the year, so we may as well have fun with it. This year my brother is dressing up as a skeleton, and I'm dressing up as a bride. I am wearing my mom's wedding dress. It is fun dressing up in costumes and putting on lots of makeup. Sometimes our friends don't even know who we really are! The best part of Halloween is the candy, of course. I once got an entire garbage bag full of candy. Mom and Dad took it away because I was eating too much. Mom gave me a piece of candy every day, though. If you eat too much candy, you can get a stomach ache. You need to remember to brush your teeth often, too, so you don't get cavities. Still, that candy sure does taste good! Well, it's time to go "trick or treating." So off I go, door to door, getting yummy candy and hearing people say, "Oh, aren't you pretty!"

74. New Year's

"Ten, nine, eight, seven, six, five, four, three, two, one! HAPPY NEW YEAR!" What is New Year's? Well, to me a New Year is when the date of the year changes. This year it is 2001, and on December 31 at midnight it will change to 2002. I wonder who invented the changing of years and how it was made the way it is. It must have been someone a long time ago, since it's already 2001. When New Year's comes closer, a lot of people talk about New Year's resolutions. I don't bother making "resolutions" because I never do them anyway! And the ones that I do make are usually ones that will happen anyway. I guess it's just common sense. The biggest reason why I like New Year's is because of the fireworks that we have here in Canada and many other countries, too. You should see some of the fireworks that go off. There are many different colours. There's pink, blue, purple, yellow, green, red, even white, silver and gold. Fireworks make loud bangs, squeals, siren sounds, and sometimes all at once. There are lots of different sounds, but I can't even explain what they are all like. Fireworks are best when it's very dark outside. They light up the whole sky! Sometimes, they look as though they are going to fall on you. I like New Year's because it's fun in other ways, but the fireworks are the best part. You can buy fireworks to use for your own fireworks show. However, you have to be careful that no one gets burned or hurt. Usually, there are parties at New Year's. Some people really dress up fancy and even wear masks. They don't know who one another is until midnight when they take their masks off. As midnight comes very close, everybody begins to count down, and then everyone yells out "Happy New Year's" and bang pots and pans or ring bells or honk horns. Join me in the count down on New Year's Eve."Ten, nine, eight, seven, six, five, four, three, two, one Happy new year

75. More Music

I like music. I have always liked music. Even when I was very young, I liked music. I like to listen to it, and to make it. When I was a little girl, listening to nice music would sometimes make me cry! That may seem silly, but the music was so pretty that I cried! As I grew older, I started to take piano lessons. I was not very good at first, but after a while I got better. Also, as I grew older, I started to take violin lessons. I did not sound very good at all at first, but I improved. When I was a teenager in high school, I made sure I had music classes every year. Those were the classes I enjoyed most of all. Everyone loved music, and we had a lot of fun. I started to take private singing lessons while I was in high school, too. I also sang in the choir, played in a band and acted in plays in high school. The plays were all musicals, so I got to sing and dance and enjoy music that way also. It was so much fun pretending to be other people! When I finished high school, I went to university to learn how to be a music teacher. That was a lot of fun because every day I was with other people who loved music as much as I do. Mostly I played the piano, but I also learned how to play the drums, a saxophone, a trombone, a French horn, a clarinet, a flute, which I REALLY was not very good at, and a viola. I took more singing lessons, too. We did not have plays to sing and act in, but I sang in the university choir. Some years, I played the piano for other students who were learning other instruments. One year, I played duets with another girl who was also there to play piano. She and I made sure we played fast, funny songs, so we really enjoyed ourselves doing it. Now, I am a music teacher. I do not have a lot of students, not as many as I used to have anyway. I still find it very rewarding. I like to see people who start off not knowing very much, if anything, and go on to be very good at creating music. I still love listening to music also. Music makes me happy when I am sad. It makes me want to dance or sing when I am already happy. Mostly, music just makes me glad that I am me and that music is alive in me.

76. Babies

My baby is asleep in my arms. Her soft cheek rests against my chest, while her sweet breath puffs gently on my skin. Her tiny lips are puckered a bit. Her little eyelids flutter. I wonder what she dreams about as she sleeps. Does she dream? I have heard her whimper in her sleep. Sometimes she awakens with a scream. What is so scary in her little baby dreams? Once I heard her giggle as she slept. Her dreams must have been sweet that day. I have had three babies. The one I am holding now is my last one. My other babies are grown up more and now at school. I love their childish play and laughter. I miss their baby dimples and their baby sounds and smells. There is such joy in the birth of a new baby. We hear their first little cry, telling us all is well with their small world. We feel their newborn skin, wrinkled, soft and slightly damp. We feel each little limb and are filled with wonder and humility. Life is good as baby takes its first food from its mother. Family gathers around, each waiting to hold and love this newest member. Each time the baby cries, its mom worries, and their bond becomes stronger. Babies have their own special smell. Some have described it as "milk and innocence." It is the sweetest smell on earth, I think. It cannot be copied. Somehow, it disappears as baby grows. I love to hear my baby talk. Once in a while I can even understand a little bit! She is so serious in her baby talk that I just have to pick her up and hug her. I love to hear her say "Mommy." When my baby is tickled, or when the dog or her big brothers do something funny, it is so sweet to hear her baby laugh. It's such a cute little giggle! Sometimes she laughs so hard, her face turns red, tears come to her eyes, and she falls down weak with the laughter. Those who watch her can't help but laugh, too. I hope she always laughs so easily. The parents watch with pride and joy as baby grows and has many "firsts." There is the first time baby sleeps through the night, rolls over, smiles, laughs, hugs and kisses. Then there is the first tooth, crawling, first step and first word. With each new first, the baby becomes less a baby! These steps are a little sad to parents, too, because they know they're "losing their baby." However, to a mother, even an adult child is still her baby! My baby is not perfect. Sometimes she gets mad or whines for no reason. But, to me, she is still beautiful. Her smiles make up for her tears. Her hugs wipe away when she's been bad. I intend to cherish each moment with my baby while I can!

77. Bed Time

I am almost nine years old and my bed time is 8.30 p.m. I think that is so unfair! I think I am old enough to stay up until at least 9.00 p.m. My parents say that I have to go to bed early because I have school the next day. I can't wait until I am grown up and can stay awake as long as I want. Even though I think I should be able to go to bed later, I do like our night time routine. At about 8.l5 p.m., my Mom sends us up to put on our pajamas. When we come back downstairs, we read together. Sometimes Mom will read to us, and sometimes we will read to her. If Dad is not working, he will sometimes read, too. Mostly it is Mom we read with though. When we read, Mom helps us with words we cannot read. We have to try and sound the word out, but if we are really stuck, she will help us. If we come to a place in our reading where we do not understand the meaning of what was written, we stop reading and look at Mom. She will tell us what it means or help us figure it out on our own. First we say goodnight to Mom and give her a hug and a kiss. Then we do the same for Dad, then our little sister, and then our dog! Afterwards, we go upstairs and brush our teeth. I have to do special stretching exercises for the muscles in my chest and legs, or I get pains when I run and play. After my exercises, either my brother or I turn off the lights. We share a bedroom, so we take turns turning the light off. Before we get into bed, we say prayers. After we get into our beds, my brother and I talk to each other for a long time. We tell each other about our day, about what we hope will happen in the future, about friends and all sorts of other important things. After a while, we get so tired, we just fall asleep in the middle of talking! Even though we go to bed at 8.30 p.m., we talk so long we don't go to sleep until about l0.00 p.m. I still do not know why I have to go to bed so early when I am not even tired!

78. Why Do I Like Mathematics?

Sometimes there is a problem in life that has no answer. Perhaps a child has trouble learning. Perhaps someone becomes ill. Perhaps there was love, but now there is conflict. These problems are hard to solve. There is no single answer. Many people have opinions on what is the best answer. But in mathematics there is an answer. a single answer that is right. There is no doubt; there is no argument; this answer is right. If we ask, "What is five plus seven?" The answer is twelve. If we ask, "How do you raise a child?" The answer would depend on the child and the parents. Sometimes there is more than one way to reach an answer. Imagine we want to find the area of a triangle. The triangle has a right angle; the two sides surrounding the right angle are 20mm and 30mm. The formula for the area of a triangle is one half of (base)(height). We could consider the 20mm side as the base and 30 mm as the height. We could consider the 30mm side as the base and the 20mm side as the height. Both ways would produce the same answer. The area is 300 square mm. Alternatively, we could consider the base as the third side of the triangle and then we would have to draw a height and measure it. The height would be neither 20 nor 30. But still we would end with the same answer. In math, the answer does not change. Another reason I like math is the way it brings order. There can be a whole set of numbers or a whole set of measurements that mean nothing until mathematics organizes them into a pattern. An average number can be found; graphs can be drawn; This is like having a whole lot of dirty dishes after supper. Applying math is like washing and sorting the dishes and putting them back into the cupboard. Math is a powerful tool. Math should be our friend, and we will find more ways to use it to better our lives.

79. My Sister's Visit to Canada

My sister had never been to Canada but came for a visit last April. I picked her up at the airport in Toronto and drove her through the traffic and multilane highways, past the grape vines and peach trees to Niagara Falls, where I live. She was very tired from the flight and soon slept. The first day we walked to see the Falls. The spray from the Falls drifts high into the air and across the people standing to watch. There are people from all over the world watching the water and using their cameras. Because it was April there was still ice beside the water, huge chunks of ice that looked like white rocks. In the river there were floating pieces of ice moving downstream. The next day we went to the town where the Niagara River joins Lake Ontario. The weather was warm. We walked a long way and our feet were hot, so we went down to the edge of the water to put our feet in. One toe in was enough! The water was so cold that it made our feet ache! A piece of ice drifted beside our feet. I put one foot in for a second then out as the pain of the cold went right through me! My sister could not understand how it could be so warm, but there was still ice. Another day we went to see my daughter; she is living on a farm an hour's drive away. We walked through her trees; the buds were starting to turn into leaves. We stopped and looked at the spring wildflowers. We climbed across a creek by walking over a fallen tree. We saw the footprints of raccoons by the water. There was fresh air and sunshine and blue sky. On the way home we stopped for hamburgers and fries at a drive through restaurant. She had never been to a drive through restaurant before. Then we went to a donut shop. There are no donut shops where she lives. There was a choice of 20 different types of donut. some round, some with holes, some with frosting, some with jam inside each was different. The days passed quickly, and soon it was time to take her back to the airport. Some of the trees now had leaves; some of the tulips were now blooming. It was hard to say goodbye to my sister. I hope we can visit again soon.

80. A Summer Sunday

Today the sun was warm; the sky was blue with a few white clouds. It was a good day to pick strawberries; it was a good day to go to the beach. I drove to a pick your own farm where people can pick their own fruit and buy it. There the fruit is very fresh and delicious. The owner of the farm gave everyone a row to pick their strawberries. Everyone was wearing sun hats. I knelt down on the straw between the rows and picked the big juicy red berries. I tasted one; it was warm from the sun. When I bit into it the juice was sweet and strong. When three big pails were full, I went to pay for them and picked up some recipes for some strawberry desserts. I packed two of the pails in a cooler with some ice, and the other one we would eat at the beach. I met my daughter at the beach. She had a soft pink blanket on the sand. This beach is beside a lake, and across the lake about 50 km away the large city can sometimes be seen. Today the wind blew cooler air across the lake over the people on the beach. There were children playing in the water. One man helped his son dig holes in the sand, and the water ran into the holes. One lady held her children's hands and walked down into the water. Families climbed over the rocks and sat on the last rock where the water was deep. Teenagers rode bicycles and roller blades along the path beside the beach. Adults walked and ran along this path, carrying water bottles around their waists We sat on the blanket and ate sandwiches of meat and lettuce and strawberries from the pail. We talked and read books and lay in the sun, relaxing. We wore sunscreen, but our skin was getting hot. How cold was the water? We walked across the sand that almost burned our feet, to the edge of the water. She went right in and lay down floating. I put my toes in and felt the chill through my body. I went up to my knees, then my thighs, but that was far enough! My whole body was cooled down; I headed back to the blanket to lay in the sun again. Soon it was time to go home, she was coming to my house for supper. We drove down the highway with the windows open and our hair blowing in the warm breeze. We cut the strawberries up and made a strawberry dessert with cake and ice cream. We sat outside in the backyard under the maple trees with the birds singing around us and ate our supper. It was a perfect ending to a relaxing summer day.

81. My Parents

My parents live in England, and I live in Canada. I don't see them often. They used to come and visit on a plane, and we would pick them up at Toronto airport. But now they are older and say the flight is too long for them. I went to visit them last year, with my son, their grandson. They live by the ocean, and we could hear the sound of the waves through the bedroom window and see the blue water of the English channel. There is an island with a castle on top in the bay. We walked many times on the beach and picked up pebbles and feathers. We visited the island and walked up the steep hill to the castle. My mother likes to cook. She makes delicious cakes and pies. We went for a hike and picked wild blackberries. She made them into a pie that smelled so good coming out of the oven and tasted so good on our plates. She has many cook books with recipes from all over the world and likes to try new things. She can make pastry very easily and rolls it with a rolling pin quickly. When I tried to make pastry, it sticks to the rolling pin, it has holes at the bottom of the pie, and it tastes like a rock! Her pastry is crisp and tender. My father likes to garden. He grows lettuce, carrots, potatoes, tomatoes, cucumbers and many flowers. When my mother was very ill last year, she had to stay in bed. He planted roses outside her bedroom window so that she could open the curtains and see them. Their house has small room with windows all around, and they plant seeds there in winter in small pots. The warmth from the sun makes the seeds grow, and in spring they are a good size to be planted outside. In the house beside them and in the house in front of them, there are older ladies whose husbands have died. These ladies do not drive, so my father takes my mother and the two ladies to the town for shopping every week. He helps one find her groceries because she cannot see well. He helps her take tapes of books from the library so that she can listen to books instead of reading them because of her eyes. He helps them cut their grass and fix anything that is broken in the house. I am very proud of my parents; they are over eighty years old and often hurt when they move around. But still they help other people, and they help each other. They have been married for over fifty years, but still my father loves my mother enough to plant roses for her to cheer her up when she was ill.

82. The Planets of Our Solar System

The planet on which we live is called the Earth. Our planet is constantly moving around the sun, and each year, the Earth travels all the way around the sun. But there are many other planets that also travel around the sun. Together with the sun, the planets, and various other bodies, the Earth is part of our "solar system." The planet that is closest to the sun is Mercury. Mercury is extremely hot, and it is much smaller than the Earth. The second planet from the sun is Venus. Venus is about the same size as the Earth. Venus is also very hot. The Earth is the third planet from the sun. The Earth is unusual among the planets because it has such a large moon. The Earth is bigger than the moon, but the moon is still quite large. It takes about one month for the moon to travel around the Earth. The fourth planet from the sun is Mars. Mars is known for its red colour. Mars is smaller and colder than the Earth. Mars has two very small moons. After the planet Mars, there are many small bodies called the asteroids. These rocky objects are much smaller than planets. The first four planets are all made of rock and metal. The remaining planets, however, are mostly made of frozen gases. The fifth planet is called Jupiter. Jupiter is the largest planet. It has many moons that travel around it, and it also has a large red spot. The sixth planet is called Saturn. Saturn is the second largest planet, and it is famous for the wide "rings" that surround it. These rings are made up of many smaller objects that are found in the same area. The seventh planet is called Uranus. The eighth planet is called Neptune. These planets are also gas giants, but they are smaller than Jupiter and Saturn. Both Uranus and Neptune are so far from the sun that scientists only discovered these planets during the past few hundred years by using telescopes. The other planets had all been visible to curious people for many thousands of years. The ninth planet is called Pluto. Pluto is very small, and it is much more rocky than the gas giants. Some scientists believe that Pluto is not really a planet at all. They suggest that Pluto is the largest of many asteroids that are found at the edge of the solar system. The solar system is a vast place. So far, people have not travelled beyond the moon. But perhaps someday, human astronauts will visit the other planets of our solar system!

83. Learning to Drive

Each year, many young people learn to drive a car. For many people, learning to drive is important because the car is an important method of transportation in many places. Before learning to drive a car, it is important to understand the rules of the road. A beginning driver should already understand the many signs that are found along the roads. Also, the student driver should know the many rules about changing lanes, turning, stopping, and many other aspects of driving. In addition, the driver should be familiar with the way the car is operated; it is important to know how to use the lights, signals, brakes, accelerator, and steering wheel. When a person starts learning to drive, it may take some time to become skillful. It takes some practice to become an expert in driving a car. One must become familiar with steering, speeding up, and slowing down. At first, it is good to practice driving in a large open space, such as an empty parking lot. Here, one can practice without being a danger to anyone. When a person gains some skill in driving, it is then safe enough to practice driving on a road. Of course, a student driver must still be very careful. He or she should always have an expert driver in the car with him or her. Many beginning drivers take driving lessons from professional instructors, who can teach safe driving techniques. Eventually, the young driver is ready for a driving test, which is needed to obtain a regular driver's licence. This test is supervised by a government official. In the driving test, the driver must show that he or she can control the car with great skill by being able to make turns and to park the car in small spaces. But he or she must also show respect for the rules of the road by driving at a proper speed, and obeying all traffic signs and signals. Of course, even when one has obtained a driver's licence, it is always important to drive carefully and responsibly!

84. Snow

Snow is the white substance that falls to the ground during cold weather conditions. Each tiny piece of snow, called a snowflake, is a very small amount of water that has frozen into an unusual shape. During the winter months, huge numbers of snowflakes fall to the ground, covering the land in a white blanket of snow. In many parts of the world, people never see any snow. Snow only falls when there is moisture in the air, and when the temperature falls below the freezing point of water, which is zero degrees Celsius. During the winter, snow falls instead of rain. One advantage of snow is that it allows many fun outdoor activities. Children like to play in the snow. For example, they may make a "snowman" by rolling snow into a large ball, and then placing these balls of snow on top of each other, in the shape of a person. Another fun activity in the snow is skiing. Skis are very long, thin, flat pieces of hard material that one wears on one's feet. Wearing skis allows a person to slide along the surface of the snow. People can ski down the side of a hill, travelling at great speeds. Many people find the sport of downhill skiing to be very exciting. Some people like to ski along flat ground, often travelling great distances. This sport, called cross country skiing, is an excellent way to develop physical fitness. Of course, snow also causes some problems. Snow can make driving dangerous because falling snow makes roads slippery, and on a windy day, blowing snow can make it difficult to see very far. It can also be a lot of work to remove snow from the roads and sidewalks. Snow is a heavy substance, and it must be cleared away using a shovel or a large machine. Many people love the beauty of the land when it is covered by snow. The white covering of snow over the fields and trees can give a feeling of peace and calm. If you have never seen snow before, you should someday experience this strange and wonderful substance!

85. Christmas

In most Western countries, Christmas is the biggest holiday of the year. People gather with their families to celebrate this day, which occurs on December 25th each year. The holiday of Christmas celebrates the birth of Jesus Christ. In the Christian religion, Jesus Christ is recognized as the Son of God. During the Christmas season, many people celebrate the events of the birth of Jesus Christ. For example, they recall the three wise men who visited Jesus Christ shortly after his birth. Also, they recall that Jesus Christ was born in a manger (a place where horses are kept), because his parents could not find a place to stay. In Western countries, Christmas is also celebrated by many people who are not religious. People view Christmas as a time for being together with one's relatives. Children, parents, and grandparents gather to exchange presents and to eat special foods. The tradition of giving gifts at Christmas is unusual in one way. When children go to bed on the evening before Christmas, they hang large socks (called stockings) in their house. When they wake up on Christmas morning, the stockings have been filled with toys and candy. According to tradition, the presents have been given by a fat man who wears a white beard and a red suit. This man, called Santa Claus, flies around the world in a sled that is pulled by reindeer. He stops at each house and flies down the chimney to deliver his presents. In the weeks before Christmas, children are usually very well behaved. Their parents tell them that Santa Claus will only give presents to children who are good! Another Christmas tradition is the Christmas tree. People put a small tree inside their house and decorate it with various pretty objects. Nowadays, most people use an artificial tree instead of a real tree. The tradition of the Christmas tree is actually older than Christmas itself the people of Europe celebrated the beginning of the winter season in this way even before Christianity reached Europe. Christmas is certainly one of the most important and most enjoyed holidays in Western countries.

86. Thanksgiving

An important holiday in North America is held during the fall, or autumn, season of the year. This holiday is called Thanksgiving. At this time of year, people join with their relatives to reflect upon their good fortune. Thanksgiving is a holiday that has a long history in North America. It was first celebrated when English settlers arrived in the eastern part of what is now the United States, during the seventeenth century. When they survived the first hard year, they celebrated and gave thanks to God. They invited some of the Native people to their Thanksgiving celebration, because the Native people had helped them to survive during the hard winter. The tradition of celebrating Thanksgiving continued and spread throughout North America. Each fall, during the time of the autumn harvest, people celebrated Thanksgiving. They gave thanks for the food of the harvest, and for all the good things in their lives. Today, the tradition of Thanksgiving celebration continues. Families gather to eat a large bird called a turkey. They also eat pumpkin pie. This is a sweet dessert that is made from a large orange vegetable that grows on the ground. In the United States, Thanksgiving is celebrated on the fourth Thursday of November. But the following day, Friday, is also a holiday, and then comes the weekend. In Canada, Thanksgiving is celebrated on the second Monday of October. The reason for the earlier celebration in Canada is that the weather is colder than in the United States. This means that the harvest happens earlier in Canada, so Thanksgiving is held at an earlier date. But in both countries, Thanksgiving is a very pleasant time of year.

89. My Friends

Two of my best friends are named John and Jane. John and Jane are related to each other. In fact, they are brother and sister. Not only are they brother and sister, but they are also twins. Their mother gave birth to them only a few minutes apart. I first met John and Jane when we were only five years old. We went to kindergarten classes at the same school. Because the house where John and Jane lived was close to my family's house, I often walked to school with John and Jane. When we weren't at school, John and Jane and I often played together. Sometimes, we would play sports and games. Sometimes, we would play in the forest, looking for birds and animals. On rainy days, we would stay inside, and play with toys and dolls. On warm summer days, we would go swimming in the lake that was near the place where we lived. I often visited John and Jane at their house. On many occasions, I had lunch at their place. John and Jane's parents were very nice to me. Of course, John and Jane often visited my house too. My parents enjoyed it when John and Jane came over for lunch. When I became older, I remained friends with John and Jane. Sometimes, we would study or do our school homework together. Sometimes, we worked at the same part time jobs, to make extra money. We often helped each other in various ways. Sometimes, I did a favour to help John or Jane, and sometimes they did favours to help me. Eventually, when we grew up, I moved to a different town. Both John and Jane also moved to different places. But I am still good friends with John and Jane. Two years ago, I went to Jane's wedding, and last year, I went to John's wedding. I think I will probably always be friends with John and Jane. Having friends is very nice. I am very lucky to have had good friends such as John and Jane.

90. Hobbies

Hobbies are activities that people do in their spare time, for the sake of enjoyment. A hobby usually involves work of some kind, but the work is fun for the person who does it. Some people enjoy their hobbies very much and like to spend much time on those hobbies. There are many different hobbies that people enjoy. One of the most popular hobbies is gardening. Many people enjoy growing beautiful flowers or tasty vegetables in a garden near their house or apartment. People who have a garden enjoy seeing the results of their work when flowers show their bright, beautiful colours. But gardeners also enjoy the tasks of gardening itself. They like to work in the soil, planting and watering their flowers. Another popular hobby is photography. Some people enjoy taking pictures of the people and places around them. People who enjoy photography may sometimes buy expensive cameras that allow interesting photographs to be taken. But even people who have only a basic camera can still take beautiful pictures. For many people, car repair is a favourite hobby. Some people enjoy looking at the engine and other parts of their cars. Those people make repairs or improvements to their cars. Of course, this is a useful hobby, but many people enjoy "fixing up" a car simply because they enjoy working with cars. Some people collect objects as a hobby. For example, some people collect postage stamps, and some people collect coins. It can be very satisfying to find the missing parts of one's collection, especially when the stamps or coins are very rare. Of course, these are just a few of the many hobbies that people enjoy. 91. Life in Outer Space?

People have often wondered about whether or not there is life beyond the planet Earth. For years, the idea of intelligent life on other planets has been very popular. Many books and movies tell stories of what those forms of life might be like. Many scientists believe that very simple forms of life are likely to exist on many other planets. Under the right conditions, simple life forms might arise. Those conditions, which include moisture and warmth, might occur in many parts of the universe. Fewer scientists believe that very intelligent forms of life are likely to exist on many other planets. For intelligent life to evolve, a very long period of time is needed. During that time, the conditions on a planet must not be too harsh. Otherwise, the evolving life forms will die. The amount of water, heat, and various chemicals must be "just right." If not, then complex life might never evolve. The conditions needed for intelligent life to evolve are very unlikely to occur on any one planet. However, some scientists believe that intelligent life might be common in the universe. Because there are so many stars and planets in the universe, there might be a few places that have intelligent life. However, those places are probably very, very far away. Other scientists disagree. They think that the conditions needed for intelligent life are extremely rare. Because of this, our planet might be the only place that has intelligent life! So far, it is impossible to know whether or not there are intelligent beings on other planets. But even if those beings do exist, it seems very unlikely that we will ever meet them.

92. Reading the Newspaper

I often enjoy reading the newspaper. In my city, there are three different newspapers, and I look at different newspapers on different days. I find that each section of a newspaper has some interesting information. Most newspapers contain several sections that can be easily removed from the rest of the newspaper. The main section is found at the front of the newspaper. This section usually contains the most important news from around the world, from around the nation, and from the local area. Sometimes the main section also includes some pages that contain opinions about the news. The editors of the newspaper write an editorial opinion. Other writers provide many different opinions about current events. Also, some readers of the newspaper write letters to the editor, in which they express their opinions. Another popular section of the newspaper is the sports section. This section contains information about many different sports events. The sports section provides scores and results from many games and competitions. Another section of the newspaper contains information about entertainment and the arts. The arts and entertainment section tells readers about new movies and plays. It also describes new books, music concerts, and art exhibits. Most newspapers also have a business section. This section provides information about new business deals, and about the stock market. Many people read the business section of the newspaper to gain information and advice about investing their money. Finally, newspapers usually have a section for classified advertisements. This section allows people to advertise about things that they want to buy or sell. It also gives notices about job openings. Reading the newspaper is surely a good way to keep informed about many different events in the world around us.

93. Summer Jobs

In North America, many young people attend high school, college, or university. But during the summer months, most of those students work at a summer job. For most students, there are no classes during the months of July and August, and sometimes none in May and June also. Having a summer job allows students to make money that they will need during the rest of the year. They need this money because it costs a lot of money to pay for university or college. Of course, students also want money to spend on things that are fun, also. Many students have summer jobs that involve working with children. For example, some students work at children's camps, where they teach children various skills and games. Some students work as lifeguards, at swimming pools and at beaches. Some students do heavy work in their summer jobs. For example, some students find jobs as construction workers. Other students work in factories, and some students work on farms. There are other students who find jobs mowing lawns or collecting trash. Quite a few students work in stores. Some of these students have jobs as cashiers, and some have jobs putting products on store shelves. Other students work in restaurants, as waiters or as cooks. Other students work in offices. Some of them work as assistants for other employees. Their tasks might include typing letters, programming computers, or delivering mail. Some students enjoy their summer jobs very much, and they find those jobs to be a pleasant break from studying. Other students do not really enjoy summer jobs, but find their jobs to be a nice way to make new friends. But nearly all students who have summer jobs are pleased to have the chance to earn some extra money.

94. Eating Out

Many people enjoy the experience of going out to eat at a restaurant. It is enjoyable to eat one's favourite foods, or to try some entirely new food. Going out to a restaurant is also fun because it allows a change from the usual routine of eating at home. There are many different kinds of restaurants. One popular type of restaurant is the fast food restaurant. When ordering fast food, you must first wait in line at the front of the restaurant, and then order food from the counter. After paying, the food is quickly delivered, and you can then take the food to a table, where you can enjoy your meal. In most restaurants, you don't have to go to a counter to order your food. Instead, you are taken to a table soon after entering the restaurant. There, a waiter comes to give you a menu. You can choose your meal from the foods that are listed on the menu. After ordering, it takes some time to prepare your food. After a while, the waiter brings your meal to the table. When you are finished eating, the waiter brings the "bill" or "check". You then pay for the meal, and leave some extra money as a "tip" for the waiter. In some other restaurants, the waiter does not bring the meal to your table. Instead, after you are taken to a table, you then go to a counter called a "buffet." There you can select different types of foods, such as salads, soups, meats, breads, vegetables, and desserts. After putting the food on your plate, you return to your table. After eating, you can return to the buffet to get more food. Other restaurants can be very fancy. They may have beautiful decorations, and they may have food that is prepared by expert chefs. These restaurants may also serve fine wines with the food. Of course, these restaurants are very expensive. At these restaurants, it is often necessary to reserve a table by telephoning the restaurant in advance. Different restaurants specialize in different kinds of food. Fast food restaurants may specialize in hamburgers or chicken. Some restaurants specialize in steak or seafood. Other restaurants specialize in foods that belong to a certain nationality. For example, many restaurants specialize in Italian, Mexican, Chinese, Indian, or Thai food. Eating out at a restaurant can be a fun and tasty experience. What is your favourite kind of restaurant?

95. Radio Stations

When I drive in my car, I like to turn on the radio. By listening to the radio, I can enjoy music and learn the latest news while I am travelling from one place to another. Of course, you can also listen to the radio at home, or even at work. Listening to the radio is a popular activity for many people, and each city has many different radio stations. There are many different kinds of radio stations. Some radio stations provide news and information. Other radio stations have a "talk" format, where listeners can call the radio station's experts, to discuss political affairs or to ask for personal advice. Although there are many radio stations that provide news and opinions, most radio stations are mainly devoted to playing music of some kind. For example, some radio stations play the songs that are currently most popular, often called the "top 40" songs. Other radio stations specialize in particular types of music. There are some stations that play only classical music. Other radio stations mainly play jazz music. Some very popular radio stations play "hard rock" music. Others specialize in country music. Some people prefer radio stations that play rhythm and blues music. Still other people enjoy radio stations that specialize in soft, "easy listening" music. If you have a favourite kind of music, or even if you like to listen to all kinds of music, you can probably find at least one radio station that you will like. In addition to news and music, some radio stations provide other kinds of entertainment. Sometimes, a story from a book will be told over the radio. Occasionally, the words of a theatrical play may be heard on the radio. Even in the age of television and computers, the radio has remained an important source of entertainment and information. People will surely listen to the radio for a long time to come.

96. Being a Good Citizen

Every society has laws that regulate the way people behave. A good citizen should obey laws. However, there is more to being a good citizen than merely obeying laws. There are many other things that people can do to make their society a pleasant one for every person. One way to be a good citizen is to be polite in everyday activities. For example, when passing through a door, a considerate person will hold the door open for a person who is close behind. Holding doors open is especially important when someone is carrying a heavy load. Being a good citizen is very important when travelling on the roads and streets. Pedestrians, bicyclists, and car drivers should all follow the rules of the road. Bicyclists should yield to pedestrians, and car drivers should yield to both bicyclists and pedestrians. Drivers should also allow other drivers to merge into their lanes. Also, drivers should avoid honking their horns except when this is necessary. A good citizen will also avoid doing things that interfere with others. For example, a considerate person does not smoke cigarettes in areas where this might irritate others. Also, a polite person avoids playing music so loudly that other people will be annoyed. And of course, a good citizen avoids littering or making a mess. Other ways of being a good citizen involve greater effort. Some people serve their community by doing volunteer work of some kind. Other people help by donating money to a charity. Another way to serve the community is to donate blood. Blood donors are needed so that there will be enough blood available to help people who are sick or injured. Being a good citizen is very helpful for the community, and it also gives a feeling of satisfaction and pride!

97. Visiting the Doctor

When people feel sick, they go to a doctor. But sometimes people visit the doctor even when they are not sick. Doctors can perform a medical "check up" to find out if a person is healthy. By performing this physical examination, the doctor can identify any health problems that might be developing. During a check up, the doctor examines your eyes, ears, and throat. The doctor uses a small flashlight to examine the eyes, ears, and throat. It is important to make sure that the eyes react normally to changes in light. It is also important to make sure that the ears and throat have a normal appearance. When the doctor examines your throat, he or she will ask you open your mouth wide and say "ah". The doctor uses a stethoscope to examine the patient's heartbeat. The stethoscope hangs around the doctor's neck. By using a stethoscope, a doctor can hear the patient's heartbeat very clearly. While checking the patient's heart, the doctor also listens carefully to make sure that the patient's breathing is normal. The doctor also checks the patient's blood pressure. Blood pressure is measured by placing a cuff around the arm. Air is then pumped into the cuff, and this allows blood pressure to be measured. Having very high blood pressure, or very low blood pressure, is not good for one's health; it is better to be "in between". Another part of the examination is a test of the reflexes. The doctor tests the patient's reflexes by gently hitting his of her knee with a small hammer. If a person has normal reflexes, the leg will extend suddenly. Sometimes a doctor may give injections using a needle, as an extra part of the check up. These injections, called vaccinations, prevent the patient from developing certain illnesses. Medical check ups can help to maintain health, but people should also maintain their health by leading a healthy lifestyle.

98. A Small Town

I grew up in a small town. There were only about two thousand people who lived in the town where I grew up. When a town is very small, it is also called a village. My village was surrounded by many farms and many lakes. The house where my family lived was near the middle of the town. On the street where we lived, most of the houses were similar in size, but many of them had different shapes and different colors. Each house was surrounded by a yard, where people grew their lawn and their garden. Often, I would walk from my house to the downtown part of the village. “Downtown” is the area where the stores and shops of a town are located. Because I lived in a small town, it was a short walk to the downtown area. Along the main street, there were several different kinds of stores. Some stores sold food, some stores sold clothing, and some stores sold hardware (or building supplies). It was also a short walk to the schools in my town. When I went to elementary school, it would take about ten minutes to walk to the school. Some of my friends lived on the same street where I lived. Sometimes, we walked to school together. During the summer months, many people came from the big city to visit our village. The people liked to get away from the busy streets of the city. They enjoyed the quietness and the slow pace of village life. They also liked to spend their vacations near the lakes that were near the village. People from the city often said that people who live in villages seemed very friendly. When I grew up, I left my village, and I went to work in a larger town. But sometimes I like to go back and visit the place where I grew up.

99. Personal Computers

During the 1980s and 1990s, personal computers became very widespread. The use of the computer has changed people's lifestyles in several ways. Before 1980, hardly anyone owned a computer. Only governments and large companies had computers. But throughout the 1980s and 1990s, computers became much cheaper, faster, and smaller, and they held much more memory. More and more people were able to afford to buy a computer. By the year 2000, computers had become very common. For many people, the personal computer is used mainly for performing calculations and for word processing. For example, people can calculate their finances on the computer. They can also use the computer to type their written documents, such as essays or letters. Many people enjoy playing games on their computers. Some people like to play chess or checkers on their computer. Other people prefer games that require fast reflexes and fine co ordination. Computer games were very simple during the early days of the 1980s. Today's computer games show detailed images and sounds. Another very popular use of computers involves communication. Many people keep in touch with their friends and relatives by using electronic mail, or e mail. E mail allows people to send letters instantly to people far away. It is even possible to attach pictures to one's e mail messages. Many people also like to use their computer to gain information on the Internet. The Internet is a vast network of electronic pages where people can find information on many different topics. For example, people can read newspapers and magazines on the Internet. Personal computers have only existed for a short time. But for many people, those computers have quickly become a very useful part of everyday life!

100. Methods of Transportation

In the modern age, people often travel long distances. Sometimes people travel for reasons related to their work. Sometimes they travel as tourists. And sometimes people travel to visit relatives and friends. There are many different ways that people can travel. Some forms of transportation move people along the ground. Other methods of transportation move people across the water, or through the air. Airplanes provide the fastest method of travelling. Modern jet airliners travel at about 1000 kilometres per hour. These airplanes cruise through the skies, almost ten kilometres above the level of the sea. Jet airplanes allow people to travel great distances in a short time. For example, it is possible to fly across a great ocean, such as the Pacific or the Atlantic, in several hours. Ships were once the only way to travel across the oceans. Before airplanes, it took many weeks or months to travel around the world. Today, many people still travel by ship when crossing smaller bodies of water. Some ships, called ferries, allow people to bring their cars with them onto the ship. Some people also like to travel by ship as part of a holiday. These holiday ships, called cruise ships, stop in several interesting ports along the voyage. Trains are very popular in many places. In some places, such as Japan and France, trains travel at high speeds of about 300 kilometres per hour.
